DANIEL M. SNYDER
OWNER & CHAIRMAN

Daniel M. Snyder's life has been consumed by an enduring love for the Washington Redskins.

Growing up in the D.C. area, his youth and young adulthood were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the team. Now entering his second decade as owner, Snyder has put his passion into action. He has consistently led the franchise to new prominence in the community, the business world, and the National Football League. Under his leadership, the team has raised millions of dollars for charities, and maintained its place in the top tier of the world's most valuable sports franchises.

Snyder, 44, is prominent in the affairs of the NFL, where his marketing and media expertise has been recognized with appointments to the Broadcast Committee, the Business Ventures Committee, the Digital Media Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee (which oversees the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio), and, separately, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Redskins, who continue to be ranked at the very top of Forbes magazine's list of the world's most valuable sports franchises, remain at the forefront of NFL marketing and business organizations. Since buying the team, Snyder has launched a highly successful retail arm, with 15 Official Redskins Stores in Virginia and Maryland, as well as mobile units for use at home games and other events. FedExField, the team's wholly-owned stadium, is the largest in the League with nearly 92,000 seats. Tickets to Redskins games have been sold out for more than 40 years. Over recent years, Snyder has invested approximately $100 million in improvements to the facility, including escalators, updated signage capabilities, more than 1,000 flat-screen TVs in concourses and other areas, as well as the League standard-setting Owner's Club East and Owner's Club West private luxury suites.

The team's media ventures, primarily delivered via www.redskins.com, include television and radio broadcasts via the Internet, a robust editorial staff, professional sports' first full-time independent blogger, and Extremeskins.com, the team's fan forum with more than 100,000 registered members. The team also produces a variety of television programs, broadcast independently as well as in partnership with local television outlets.

Snyder was founder, Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc. (he was the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time). From its launch in 1985 the company grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees, 77 offices in 17 countries, and more than $1 billion in annual revenues. The company's leading role in providing over 200 of the Fortune 500 client base with targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services, led to its acquisition in March 2000 by the French marketing firm Havas for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising/marketing industry.

He is founder and Chairman Emeritus of inventive Health (NASDAQ: VTIV), one of the most successful financial performers on the NASDAQ stock exchange. He also is Chairman of the Board of Six Flags, Inc. Snyder's RedZone Capital investment firm maintains the Johnny Rockets chain of hamburger, fries and shake shops to its portfolio of owned companies, along with dick clark productions, inc., the premier producer of live television programs such as the Golden Globe Awards, the Academy of Country Music Awards, the American Music Awards and the hit reality series "So You Think You Can Dance," as well as numerous other productions. Additionally, Snyder is founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates nine radio stations airing Redskins broadcasts, popular national radio shows and locally generated programming. He is a partner with Tom Cruise in Cruise/Wagner Productions, the actor's production company, and was an Executive Producer of Cruise's 2008 film "Valkyrie."

He is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and is enshrined in the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

Snyder continues as one of the Washington area's most prominent community leaders. He is active in the Larry King Heart Foundation, and devotes most of his public philanthropic efforts to Washington's Children's Hospital and the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. His support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center at Children's Hospital. He is a member of the Children's Hospital Foundation Board of Directors. He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Each day the Center handles hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help, and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. He also serves on the Executive Board of the Martin Luther King Memorial Project.

In 2000, Snyder founded the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, which utilizes the assets of the Washington Redskins and its corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington, DC, region in the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness. Since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back to the community well over $13 million to individuals, groups, and organizations.

Through its educational programs, the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation has encouraged children to read, provided academic counseling and life skills lessons to high school student-athletes, and established a $25,000 scholarship to allow a low-income, high-potential student the opportunity to attend college. Signature education programs include:

- 4th & Life High School Football Forum
  This curriculum-based program for high school football players focuses on what it takes to be successful on the field, in the classroom, and in the workplace by using examples from Redskins players, coaches, and alumni.
- Redskins Read
  Encouraging and promoting literacy among youth is the mission of the Redskins Read literacy program. This is accomplished through the production and distribution of Redskins Read activity books throughout the area, along with player appearances.
- Coaches in the Classroom
  Coaches in the Classroom places Academic Coaches at area high schools throughout the region. The coaches help student-athletes create an academic game plan to prepare them for college.

The fight to combat childhood obesity and get children active has become a priority for the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation. Through the Charitable Foundation's health and wellness programs, young people are learning how to eat healthy and "Play 60," by incorporating at least 60 minutes of physical activity into their daily lives. Signature health and wellness programs include:

- Atlas and Athena
  The Charitable Foundation has implemented Atlas and Athena, two nationally-acclaimed programs for male and female student-athletes focusing on healthy living and the elimination of drug use through peer mentoring, in high schools in Washington, D.C., Maryland, and Virginia.
- Fields for Tomorrow
  Fields for Tomorrow renovates, upgrades, and maintains football fields at high schools in need throughout Washington, D.C. and Prince George's County, Md.
- Redskins Youth Fitness Zones
  Youth fitness zones are interactive spaces that feature the HOPSports Training Systems. HOPSports has workout equipment and lessons designed for children ages 6–14 to help put the excitement back into exercising.

Washington Redskins players also donate their time, talents, and resources by providing toys, coats, and clothes to children, inspiring young football players, and making wishes come true for some little fans battling big diseases. In addition, Snyder, Redskins players, and other volunteers annually distribute more than 33,000 pounds of turkey and 120,000 pounds of other food in the form of Thanksgiving food baskets for Prince George's County, Md., families in need during Harvest Feast.

Michele Snyder

Since the early days of his business career, from his home office as a teenager through the founding of Snyder Communications in Bethesda, Md., to ownership of the Washington Redskins, Daniel M. Snyder has surrounded himself with trusted advisors and supporters. It is those family members and associates who round out the ownership group of the Washington Redskins.

Before launching a business initiative or making a critical business decision, they are the key individuals Snyder has turned to as partners, advisors, and confidants.

Snyder's sister Michele Snyder, a founder of Snyder Communications, shares his ambitious spirit. Her creativity, operational skills, and business instincts have played an instrumental role in the success of Team Snyder over the years.

A calm and steadying influence have been the contributions of Gerry and Arlette Snyder, parents of the Redskins owner. A long-time journalist and author with more than two dozen books to his credit, Gerry Snyder was editor-in-chief of Snyder Communications during the early years of the company. Gerry Snyder died in 2003 at age 69. The team training facility at Redskins Park has been named in his memory.

Arlette Snyder, who maintains the family ownership position in the team, continues her role as a primary advisor to the owner and his other partners.

Robert Rothman is Chairman of the Board of Florida Bank Group, Inc., and Chairman and CEO of the Black Diamond Group, Inc., in Tampa, Fla. He was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Consolidated International Group, Inc., which owned and operated insurance companies in Europe and North America, from 1987 to 1999. Prior to founding the Consolidated Group of companies in 1987, he was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Beneficial Insurance Group. Rothman began his career with Ernst & Young in New York after graduating from the University of Chicago.

He obtained a B.A. in Economics from Queens College of the City University of New York, and an MBA from the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business. Rothman is active in numerous charities. He is Chairman of the Board of H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute, Inc., and a member of the Advisory Council for the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business.

Dwight C. Schar is Chairman of the Board of NVR, Inc., the fifth-largest homebuilder in the United States. The company is comprised of the building operations of Ryan Homes and NVHomes. Also under the NVR umbrella is NVR Financial, which is comprised of NVR Mortgage and NVR Settlement Services. The company is based in Reston, Va., and is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Schar has been extremely active in the greater Washington community, involved in numerous business and educational groups. He is currently on the Board of Directors of Six Flags, Inc. Previously, Schar served as a trustee of the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Engineering Foundation, was a member on the Schar has also served as National Finance Chair of the Republican National Committee. In addition, he was a member of the Board of Directors for the Pittsburgh Pirates, First American Banks, the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association, Bell Atlantic Company of Virginia, and the United Way of the Capital Area. Schar served on the Board for the Mercatus Center at George Mason University and has also been a trustee for the George Mason University Foundation, Ashland University and the Virginia Foundation of Independent Colleges. He has also been a council member of the Northern Virginia Roundtable, and the Governor's Regional Economic Development Council. Schar is a graduate of Ashland University.

Frederick W. Smith is chairman, president and chief executive officer of FedEx Corporation, a $38-billion global transportation, business services and logistics company.

Smith is responsible for providing strategic direction for all FedEx Corporation operating companies, including FedEx Services, FedEx Express, FedEx Ground and FedEx Freight. FedEx serves more than 220 countries and territories with operations that include 677 aircraft and over 70,000 vehicles. More than 260,000 employees and independent contractors worldwide handle more than 7.5 million shipments each business day. Since founding FedEx in 1971, Smith has been an active proponent of regulatory reform, free trade and "open skies agreements" for aviation around the world.

FedEx has continued to strengthen its industry leadership over the past 35 years, and has been widely acknowledged for its commitment to total quality service. FedEx Express was the first service company to win the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award in 1990. In addition, FedEx has consistently been ranked on FORTUNE Magazine's industry lists, including "World's Most Admired Companies" (No. 4, 2006); "America's Most Admired Companies" (No. 2, 2006); No. 1 on the Delivery Industry list (2005); is in the "Hall of Fame" for claiming a spot on the "100 Best Companies to Work For" list since its inception (1998-2005) and is a FORTUNE Blue Ribbon Honoree for having appeared on five of the magazine's exclusive trademarked lists in 2005.

Smith has served on the boards of several large public companies and the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Mayo Foundation Boards. He was formerly chairman of the Board of Governors for the International Air Transport Association and the U.S. Air Transport Association. Smith is a member of the Business Roundtable, the Business Council and the CATO Institute. He served as chairman of the U.S.-China Business Council and is the current chairman of the French-American Business Council. Smith served as co-chairman of the U.S. World War II Memorial Project and was named Chief Executive Magazine's 2004 "CEO of the Year."

Born in 1944 in Marks, Miss., Smith attended Yale University, where he earned a B.A. in 1966. Smith served as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1966-1970.

COACHES & FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/
FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

VINNY CERRATO

18th NFL Season/10th Redskins

Entering his 10th season with the Washington Redskins and his 18th season in the National Football League, Vinny Cerrato was named Executive Vice President/ Football Operations on January 22, 2008. In this role, Cerrato controls all aspects of the team's football organization, including overseeing personnel, directing the Redskins draft, identifying free agency needs and acquisitions, coordinating all pro and college player evaluations, handling day-to-day football operations and serving as a team representative at National Football League meetings.

Cerrato began this new chapter with the Redskins after playing a central role in the hiring of Jim Zorn, who was introduced as the team's 27th head coach on February 10, 2008.

During his tenure with the Redskins, Cerrato has helped lay a solid foundation by adding significant football talent to Washington's roster. He has drafted or acquired 10 players who earned Pro Bowl honors with the Redskins: LB LaVar Arrington, T Chris Samuels, WR Laveranues Coles, LB Marcus Washington, WR Santana Moss, TE Chris Cooley, LS Ethan Albright, RB Clinton Portis, FB Mike Sellers and the late S Sean Taylor.

During the 2009 offseason, Cerrato struck quickly, re-signing CB DeAngelo Hall minutes prior to the start of free agency. Hall, a two-time Pro Bowl performer who has totaled the fifth-most interceptions (22) since entering the NFL in 2004, had joined the Redskins midway through the 2008 season. Five hours later - in the early morning stages of free agency - Cerrato engineered the signing of the league's top free agent prize, inking two-time All-Pro DT Albert Haynesworth. Regarded as one of the most dominant and physical players in the NFL, Haynesworth has totaled 24 career sacks, with 14.5 of them coming over the past two seasons. The 28-year-old centerpiece of Cerrato's 2009 free agent class had 75 tackles and a career-best 8.5 sacks in 2008.

This is not the first time Cerrato worked tirelessly to add an impact player to the Redskins' roster during the offseason. A pair of Cerrato's signature moves occurred in consecutive offseasons when he completed trades for Portis in 2004 and Moss in 2005. Portis earned his first Pro Bowl selection as a Redskin in 2008 and finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,487). He has totaled 6,103 rushing yards with the Redskins, which ranks him second all-time among Washington running backs. Moss had his second 1,000-yard receiving season as a Redskin in 2008. He earned a trip to the Pro Bowl after the 2005 season, during which he caught a career-high 84 receptions for 1,438 yards and nine touchdowns.

Building on the success of those trades, Cerrato has assembled a roster with an outstanding core of veteran talent via free agency with the additions of DE Andre Carter, DT Cornelius Griffin, G Derrick Dockery, QB Todd Collins and LB London Fletcher, who has led the team in tackles in both his seasons in Washington. He has added rising talents through the draft in Cooley, QB Jason Campbell, S LaRon Landry (Pro Bowl first alternate), CB Carlos Rogers and LB Rocky McIntosh. Additionally, Cerrato has bolstered the roster in the later rounds of the NFL Draft with the additions of DT Anthony Montgomery in the fifth round and DT Kedric Golston in the sixth round in 2006, and LB H.B. Blades in the sixth round in 2007.

Cerrato's acumen for securing talent late in the draft was also on display in 2008 when the Redskins tabbed S Chris Horton in the seventh round (249th overall). Horton started 14 games and finished first on the team with three interceptions and third on the Redskins with 81 tackles. Horton earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in Week 2 and NFC Rookie of the Month honors for September. Horton capped off his rookie season by being named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie Team. In addition to Horton, Cerrato's nine other draft picks in 2008 made the Redskins' season-opening roster.

Cerrato began his first tour in Washington in the summer of 1999. His first two years in Washington were busy as he helped acquire future Hall of Famers Bruce Smith and Deion Sanders, as well as several free agents including Irving Fryar and Mark Carrier. He swapped first-round draft picks with the 49ers, positioning the Redskins with the second and third overall picks used to select Arrington and Samuels in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Cerrato left the Redskins for the 2001 season, spending the year as an analyst for ESPN and ESPN.com. He rejoined the team in 2002 as Director of Player Personnel and was named Vice President of Football Operations in 2003.

Prior to coming to Washington, he spent eight seasons (1991-98) with the San Francisco 49ers, including their Super Bowl XXIX championship year in 1994. Cerrato joined San Francisco in 1991 as Director of College Scouting, helping to draft players including Ted Washington, Ricky Watters, Merton Hanks, Dana Stubblefield, Bryant Young and Lee Woodall. In 1995, Cerrato was promoted to Director of Player Personnel, overseeing all college scouting and draft activities as well as pro scouting of NFL players and opponents. Again, Cerrato made an impact as his drafts produced Pro Bowl performers Terrell Owens, R.W. McQuarters, Jeremy Newberry, Lance Schulters and Fred Beasley. Overall, Cerrato drafted 16 players selected to the Pro Bowl with the 49ers, and Stubblefield and Young each were named Rookie of the Year in 1993 and 1994, respectively.

In addition, he made an immediate impact in the free agent market – signing 10 players who earned Pro Bowl appearances and inking the afore-mentioned Sanders, who was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1994.

Prior to entering the NFL, Cerrato served as the football recruiting coordinator under Lou Holtz at Notre Dame (1986-90). During that time, the Irish played in four bowl games, won the 1988 NCAA National Championship, and had 23 players selected in the first and second rounds of the NFL Draft.

Cerrato began his career as a graduate assistant for the Minnesota Golden Gophers (1983-84). He was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 1985, a position he held one year before moving on to Notre Dame.

A 1982 graduate of Iowa State, Cerrato lettered at quarterback and wide receiver all four years in college. He was born in Flushing, N.Y. and grew up in Albert Lea, Minn., where he played football, track and hockey. Cerrato and his wife Rebecca, an orthopedic surgeon who specializes in foot and ankle procedures, have two sons, Vincent John and Charles, and a daughter, Rachel.

HEAD COACH
JIM ZORN

24th NFL Season/2nd Redskins

Jim Zorn enters his second season with the Washington Redskins after being named the franchise's 27th head coach on February 10, 2008.

The 2008 campaign marked Zorn's first season as a head coach in the National Football League, and he guided the Redskins to an 8-8 record in the competitive NFC East. Under Zorn, the Redskins recorded a pair of wins over the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship Game, and an impressive victory over the eventual NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals.

Well-regarded around the NFL for his offensive acumen, Zorn was originally hired as the Redskins' offensive coordinator on Jan. 26, 2008. He impressed Redskins Owner Daniel M. Snyder and Executive Vice President of Football Operations Vinny Cerrato so much that, two weeks later, they decided to offer him the head coaching job.

Zorn made an instant impact in 2008 as the Redskins raced out to a 6-2 start, including consecutive road wins at Dallas and Philadelphia. Zorn complemented the Redskins' bruising running attack with his version of the West Coast Offense, a combination that helped the Redskins finish eighth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (130.9).

Under Zorn's guidance, defensive coordinator Greg Blache oversaw a Redskins defensive unit that finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in overall defense, limiting opponents to 288.8 yards per game. Washington also allowed the sixth fewest points per game (18.5) in the league in 2008.

Zorn's new offense paid immediate dividends as four starters earned Pro Bowl honors. Running back Clinton Portis, who earned his second Pro Bowl selection and his first in five seasons with the Redskins, finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,487). Tight end Chris Cooley earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance and led the team with a career-high 83 receptions for 849 yards. Tackle Chris Samuels earned his sixth Pro Bowl appearance – marking the third-most in franchise history – while fullback Mike Sellers earned his first Pro Bowl selection in his eighth NFL season.

Zorn, an NFL quarterback from 1976-87 and an NFL assistant coach for 11 years, has an approach that he describes as "constant and consistent" in terms of how he manages coaches and players. His Redskins team reflects his philosophy of playing smart, steady, and mistake-free football.

That was demonstrated early as the Redskins became the first team in NFL history to not record an offensive turnover in its first five games. Quarterback Jason Campbell was perhaps the greatest beneficiary of Zorn's expertise with the quarterback position. Zorn played an instrumental role in the fifth-year quarterback's maturation into an efficient starting quarterback in the National Football League.

In his second season as starter, Campbell established career highs in completions (315), passing attempts (506), passing yards (3,245), touchdown passes (13) and passer rating (84.3). Additionally, Campbell showed rapid improvement under Zorn in protecting the football as he finished first in the NFL in interception percentage (1.2), throwing just six interceptions in 506 passing attempts. During Zorn's first offseason, he introduced unique quarterback drills that had a direct impact on Campbell's productivity. Campbell established a club record by throwing 271 consecutive passes without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.

Zorn joined the Redskins from the Seattle Seahawks where he spent seven seasons (2001-07) as quarterbacks coach.

During his time in Seattle, Zorn worked with Seahawks Head Coach Mike Holmgren and Offensive Coordinator Gil Haskell in implementing the team's offense while also furthering the development of the team's quarterbacks.

Zorn tutored QB Matt Hasselbeck who set a franchise record with 3,841 passing yards in 2003. Hasselbeck has become the franchise's most-efficient passer (85.1 rating) while joining Zorn as the only Seahawks quarterback to pass for 3,000-plus yards in three consecutive seasons.

In 2007 under Zorn, Hasselbeck set Seattle single-season marks for attempts (562), completions (352) and yards (3,966). He also threw for a career-high 28 touchdowns en route to his third Pro Bowl selection.

In 2006, Hasselbeck started just 12 games after suffering a knee injury in the middle of the season and finished the year with a fractured finger on his left hand. In the interim, Zorn helped with the development of Seneca Wallace, who completed 58 percent of his passes, tossed eight touchdowns, and posted a 76.2 passer rating and a 2-2 record in the most extensive playing time of his four-year career.

In 2005, Zorn guided Hasselbeck to his second Pro Bowl appearance as he became the NFC's top-rated passer (4th NFL) with a 98.2 rating en route to Super Bowl XL. Hasselbeck directed the NFL's second-ranked offense to a franchise-record 11 consecutive wins. In his four December games, he posted the fourth-best passer rating in NFL history (135.5), including 10 touchdowns and just one interception, while completing 76 percent of his passes.

Zorn's 2002 campaign had Trent Dilfer open the season as the starter and concluded with Hasselbeck under center. Seattle's passing attack ranked third in the NFL, averaging 254.9 yards a game. Hasselbeck finished the season ranked first in the NFC with a 63.7 completion percentage and second in the NFC with a 87.8 passer rating. Hasselbeck passed for more than 300 yards four times, including a franchise-record 449 in the season finale at San Diego. Hasselbeck joined Zorn as the only Seahawks quarterbacks to pass for at least 300 yards in back-to-back games. Zorn accomplished the feat in 1979 and 1981.

Zorn's 2001 quarterback crop included starter Hasselbeck, Super Bowl XXXV quarterback Dilfer and 2000 part-time starter Brock Huard. Zorn groomed Hasselbeck and helped the first-year starter to become the AFC's fifth-rated passer on third down with a rating of 80.6.

Zorn joined the Seahawks as quarterbacks coach after serving in the same capacity with the Detroit Lions (1998-00). He was instrumental in the development of rookie quarterback Charlie Batch in 1998. Batch's 88.3 passer rating that season ranks as the fourth-highest rookie mark in NFL history. Zorn broke into the NFL coaching ranks as an offensive assistant for the Seahawks in 1997.

Zorn spent eight seasons in the collegiate ranks before his pro debut. He spent two seasons (1995-96) as quarterbacks coach at the University of Minnesota and three seasons (1992-94) as the offensive coordinator at Utah State. His first collegiate coaching job was with Boise State (1989-91). Zorn was the quarterbacks coach for all three seasons, and also tutored the wide receivers in 1991.

His professional playing career began in the Seahawks' inaugural 1976 season, where he started all 14 games at quarterback. He went on to play nine seasons for the Seahawks. After departing Seattle, he finished his playing career with the Green Bay Packers (1985), the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1986) and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987).

Zorn is one of only eight players inducted to the Seahawks' Ring of Honor. He was named NFC Offensive Rookie of the Year (1976) and ranks third in the Seahawks' record book behind Dave Krieg and Hasselbeck in yards (20,122), completions (1,593), attempts (2,992), and touchdowns (107). His three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons were tops in team history, since broken by Hasselbeck in 2005, and he was the first Seattle quarterback to record back-to-back 300-plus yard passing games – a feat he accomplished twice. Zorn was recently inducted into the State of Washington Sports Hall of Fame during a pregame ceremony prior to the Redskins' game at Seattle on November 23, 2008.

Zorn, 56, and his wife, Joy, have four children: daughters Rachael, Sarah, and Danielle, and son Isaac. Rachael is married to Neal Mitchell, and the two are proud parents of daughter Hollis Joy.

The Zorns are active in Medical Teams International and Pro Athletes Outreach. Medical Teams International is dedicated to implementing and supporting programs that address the causes and effects of inadequate health care worldwide. Their teams of medical, dental and other health professionals volunteer to serve in field stations, hospitals and clinics worldwide.

During the 2009 offseason, the Zorns were joined by the Holmgren family while hosting a fundraising event for Medical Teams International at FedExField.

Pro Athletes Outreach is a Christian conference ministry, which is led by former NFL offensive tackle Norm Evans and his wife, Bobbie. PAO trains professional athletes/coaches and their wives to become leaders in their home, community and in all areas of their lives.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

HARRISON BERNSTEIN

3rd NFL Season/3rd Redskins

Harrison Bernstein enters his third season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach after joining the Redskins in 2007. He joins John Hastings and Bobby Crumpler in developing and overseeing the Redskins' strength and conditioning program in preparation for and during the upcoming season.

Bernstein received his C.S.C.S. (Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist) degree from the National Strength and Conditioning Association and briefly played Indoor Professional Football while coaching defense for Fair Lawn (N.J.) High School's football team. After a couple of years, he pursued his passion for teaching athletes and became Assistant Managing Director for the Parisi Speed School in northern New Jersey. In 2004, Bernstein moved to Washington, D.C. to start an athletic training business that developed a web based fitness management system. His coaching techniques were employed department wide at Georgetown University and attracted the attention of the Washington Redskins. In 2004, the Redskins contracted him to provide sprinting instruction for the offseason strength and conditioning program.

Bernstein received his bachelor's degree in economics from Johns Hopkins University. While playing football at JHU, he received All-America honors for three consecutive years and was named The Centennial Conference Defensive Player of the year in 1997.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

GREG BLACHE

22nd NFL Season/6th Redskins

Greg Blache enters his second season as the Redskins defensive coordinator after four seasons directing the defensive line. Blache was named defensive coordinator on January 26, 2008.

Under Blache's leadership, the Redskins finished fourth in overall defense in 2008, the fourth time in his five seasons with the unit finished in the top 10 in the NFL (third in 2004, ninth in 2005 and eighth in 2007).

Blache's 2008 squad was forced to overcome a myriad of injuries to starters on both the defensive line and secondary, yet still finished among the top 10 in rush (eighth) and pass (seventh) defense, and also allowed the sixth-fewest points in the league per game (18.5).

A veteran of 22 NFL seasons, Blache focuses on the importance of playing strong fundamental football, demonstrated by his unit's physical play in run defense. Washington limited opponents to just 95.4 rushing yards per game last season and only three opposing players totaled more than 100 yards rushing in a single game. LB London Fletcher anchored the defense and led the Redskins with 146 tackles.

Additionally, Blache's secondary proved to be the strength of the defense despite the fact that his defensive backfield had 10 different starting lineups in 16 games in 2008. The Redskins defense limited opponents to just 193.4 passing yards per game and helped force the highest percentage of three-and-outs in the NFL.

Blache's leadership was also instrumental in developing unheralded seventh-round pick Chris Horton into a starting safety and member of Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie Team, and seamlessly integrating cornerback DeAngelo Hall into the defense. Hall, signed during the Redskins' bye week last November, made an immediate impact, intercepting Tony Romo in his first game as a Redskin.

Perhaps the most impressive streak for the defense came in the middle of the season when – over a five game span – the defense held all five opponents to less than 275 yards of total offense, the first time the Redskins had accomplished a streak of that length since 1989.

This past offseason, the Redskins re-signed Hall and inked the most dominant defensive tackle in the NFL, Albert Haynesworth, who totaled 14.5 sacks in his past two NFL seasons with the Tennessee Titans (2007 and 2008).

In 2007, Blache was an integral part of helping the Redskins defense improve to eighth overall after being the 31st-ranked unit in 2006.

Blache's defensive line played a pivotal role as Washington finished fourth in the NFL in rush yardage allowed (91.3 avg.) in 2007 – a significant improvement from 2006 in which they finished 27th in the NFL (137.3 avg.) in the same category. Washington improved 23 spots in rushing defense in 2007, trailing only Tennessee, which moved up 25 places (30th overall to fifth overall).

In 2005, Blache's defensive line helped the Redskins finish ninth overall in total defense for the second consecutive year. In his first season with the Redskins in 2004, Blache made an immediate impact as Washington's defensive unit finished third overall and second in rush yardage allowed (81.5 avg.) – which represents the best overall ranking since Washington finished atop the league in rushing yards allowed with 80.6 yards per game in 1983.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Blache spent five seasons with the Chicago Bears as defensive coordinator.

During his time in Chicago, the Bears defense saw tremendous improvement.

In 2003, his defense finished the season fifth in the NFC in total defense, and 14th in the NFL, the team's highest league ranking since 1998. During his tenure, Blache's defenses forced 138 turnovers, including 37 in 2001, the most by a Bears defense since 1990, and accounted for 13 touchdowns (two in 1999, four in 2000, five in 2001, one in 2002, and one in 2003).

In 2002, Blache dealt with numerous injuries to the Bears defense, leading to 11 different starting lineups over the course of 16 games. While juggling personnel, the Bears defense continued their attacking, aggressive style. Chicago forced 64 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and reached a league plateau by forcing at least one turnover in 33 consecutive games, the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time.

In 2001, Blache molded the Bears defense into one of the top units in the league, producing the top-ranked scoring defense by allowing only 203 points in 16 games (12.7 points per game). His run defense finished second in the NFL and first in the NFC, allowing just 82.1 yards per game, while allowing only three rushes of 20 yards or more all seasons and only six rushing touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Bears, Blache served as defensive line coach for the Indianapolis Colts for five seasons (1994-98) and held the same position with the Green Bay Packers for six years (1988-93).

In addition to his pro coaching experience, Blache has held positions with several college programs. He began his coaching career as a defensive assistant in 1968 while a student at Notre Dame after suffering a leg injury that ended his playing career.

Following his graduation in 1971, he stayed on as a graduate assistant for the Fighting Irish and continued as an assistant coach for four more seasons (1972-75).

He moved on to join Tulane's staff in 1976, where he coached the offensive line (1976-77), outside linebackers (1978-79) and defensive backs (1980).

He then returned to Notre Dame to coach the running backs (1981) and, defensive line and outside linebackers (1982-83).

After spending 1984-85 as defensive line coach of the USFL's Jacksonville Bulls, he returned to the college ranks at Southern University (1986) and Kansas (1987).

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology and a master's degree in secondary education, both from Notre Dame. A New Orleans native, Blache and his wife, Lynn, have six children: Greg Jr., Jennifer, Christopher, Sarah, Corrine and Matthew. They live in Leesburg, Va.

OFFENSIVE LINE

JOE BUGEL

32nd NFL Season/15th Redskins

Joe Bugel returned to the Redskins in 2004 as assistant head coach – offense. The 32-year NFL coaching veteran has a long and storied legacy with the Redskins that includes building the legendary "Hogs," the Redskins offensive line of the 1980s. Bugel continues to direct the offensive line and looks to achieve the same success that he enjoyed during his first tour with the team.

Bugel is such a Redskins icon that Redskins Head Coach Jim Zorn, during his introductory press conference, made a specific point of how excited he was to work with the celebrated coach.

"I am pleased to have a legendary offensive line coach in Joe Bugel on my staff," Zorn said. "He has done a tremendous job taking me through the Redskins' running game, the terminology, the blocking schemes and his favorite play, '50 gut.' As a first-year head coach, his expertise is invaluable."

One of Bugel's greatest strengths as an offensive line coach is to fill a void when projected starters sustain injuries, and this skill was on display yet again in 2008.

Despite a rotating cast at the right tackle position and a late-season injury to left tackle Chris Samuels, the offensive line paved the way for the Redskins running game to rack up 130.9 yards per game, which ranked eighth in the NFL.

Running behind Bugel's offensive lines, Clinton Portis has established himself as one of the premier backs in football. His 2008 totals – 1,487 yards on 342 carries – moved him to sixth among active running backs in career rushing yards and earned him a Pro Bowl berth. With six 100-yard rushing games in 2008, Portis also took over as the leader in most 100-yard rushing games in Redskins history, with 25.

Additionally, Portis's 2008 campaign made it five straight seasons (2004-08) in which Bugel's lines have led a player to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark: Clinton Portis, 1,315 in 2004; Portis, 1,513, in 2005; Ladell Betts, 1,154 in 2006; Portis, 1,262 in 2007 and Portis, 1,487 in 2008.

Despite suffering a late-season injury, Samuels continued his stellar career as a member of Bugel's offensive line, earning his sixth Pro Bowl berth in nine active seasons — including four straight during his five seasons under Bugel's tutelage.

In 2007, Bugel faced his biggest challenge since returning to Washington in 2004. He was without the services of a pair of his starters on the right side and was forced to make a series of adjustments. Right tackle Jon Jansen (ankle surgery) landed on injured reserve after the season opener against Miami and right guard Randy Thomas (triceps injury) missed 14 contests. Overall, Bugel's 2007 offensive line featured six different lineups and three different starters at the right tackle position but still led the Redskins to finish fifth in the NFC and 12th in the NFL in rushing yards per game (116.9 avg.) in 2007. RB Clinton Portis ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL with 1,262 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2007.

Bugel's offensive front led the Redskins to consecutive Top 10 finishes in rushing yards per game in the 2005 and 2006 seasons. The Redskins ranked seventh in the NFL and averaged 136.4 yards per game in 2005. The following season (2006), Washington ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 138.5 yards per contest. Additionally, the Redskins pass protection unit allowed just 19 sacks, third-lowest in the NFL in 2006.

In his first stint with the Redskins (1981-89), Bugel developed the dominating "Hogs" offensive line that included stalwarts Russ Grimm, Joe Jacoby, Mark May, Jeff Bostic, George Starke and others. He began as the Redskins offensive coordinator in 1981 and was promoted to assistant head coach in 1983.

Under Bugel's direction, the Redskins scored a then-NFL record 541 points (1983), had four 1,000-yard rushers, one 4,000-yard passer and nine 1,000-yard receivers. Washington won two Super Bowls while Bugel was with the team, following the 1982 and 1987 seasons. Overall, he has participated in three Super Bowls, six conference championships and 24 playoff contests.

Bugel returned to coaching in 2004 after a two-year respite. From 1998-2001, he oversaw the offensive line of the San Diego Chargers. He spent three seasons with the Oakland Raiders, serving as assistant head coach/offense from 1995-96 before being named head coach for the 1997 season.

Prior to arriving in Oakland, Bugel served as head coach of the Arizona Cardinals from 1990-93.

Bugel originally entered the NFL in 1975, spending two seasons as the offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions. He joined the Houston Oilers in the same capacity in 1977. During his four seasons with the Oilers, the team set records in rushing and passing.

Before joining the NFL, Bugel spent time coaching at Ohio State (1974), Iowa State (1973), Navy (1969-72) and his alma mater, Western Kentucky (1964-68).

While earning his degree in physical education, Bugel was an all-conference guard and linebacker. He earned a master's degree in counseling, also at Western Kentucky. A Pittsburgh native, Bugel was a two-way star in football at Munhall High School. In 2005, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter). Bugel and his wife, Brenda, have daughters: Angie, Jennifer and the late Holly Bugel; as well as son-in-law, Monte.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

BOBBY CRUMPLER

7th NFL Season/7th Redskins

Bobby Crumpler enters his seventh season with the Redskins. He joins John Hastings and Harrison Bernstein in overseeing the Redskins strength and conditioning efforts. They have implemented a disciplined and individualized conditioning program that will have the Redskins in peak form for the 2009 season.

Crumpler will also direct the Redskins' player development program in 2009. During the offseason, Crumpler coordinates an internship program that assists players in locating and securing opportunities to help them earn practical job experience that may lead to a second career when it comes time to leave the playing field. He also works closely with players in family assistance and financial programs.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Crumpler spent seven years coaching on the collegiate level, most recently at the University of Kansas, where he helped build the strength and conditioning program for Jayhawks football in 2002.

Crumpler spent 12 seasons at his alma mater North Carolina State, where he served in the strength and conditioning department in virtually every capacity including student assistant (1989), graduate assistant (1994-96) and full-time assistant coach (2000-01).

Crumpler was a standout running back for North Carolina State from 1983-87. He won the Dick Christy Award as a junior in 1986, finishing the season as the team's leading rusher, and playing a key role in leading the team to a Peach Bowl berth. As a senior in 1987, he was the Wolfpack's co-captain and MVP.

A 1989 North Carolina State graduate in industrial technology education, Crumpler is working towards his master's degree in sports management. He and his wife, Stacey, have four children: sons Gabe and Chayce, and daughters Alexis and Brianna.

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

CHIP GARBER

1st NFL Season/1st Redskins

Chip Garber was named the Redskins' defensive quality control coach on February 11, 2009.

Garber brings 28 years of coaching experience with him to Washington, including 27 in the collegiate ranks. Prior to joining the Redskins, he spent the 2008 season as the defensive backs coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League.

Garber spent the 2006 season as the wide receivers coach at the University of North Texas. Prior to his time with North Texas, Garber worked as the defensive backs coach at Hofstra for the 2004 and 2005 seasons, which was his second stint with the Pride. Garber held the title of defensive coordinator/safeties coach in 1999. Under his watch the Pride defense ranked seventh in Division I-AA in scoring defense (15.6 points per game) and 14th in passing efficiency.

In between his stops at Hofstra, Garber spent four seasons at West Point as Army's assistant head coach/linebackers (2000-02) and assistant head coach/defensive backs (2003). He also served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Virginia Military Institute from 1996-98.

Before going to VMI, Garber spent the previous four seasons, 1992-95, coaching the defensive backs at the University of Minnesota. During the 1995 season, Garber worked on the same staff as Redskins Head Coach Jim Zorn, who was serving as the Gophers' quarterbacks coach.

Garber started his coaching career in 1980, spending two seasons as a part-time assistant with SMU. From 1982-89, Garber coached at Kentucky, first working with wide receivers, then switching sides of the ball to instruct the defensive backs and assist with special teams. Garber continued to coach defensive backs and special teams during tours with Mississippi State (1990) and TCU (1991).

As a player, Garber was a three-year letterman as a linebacker at Maryland from 1975-77. During that span, the Terrapins reached the Gator Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Hall of Fame Bowl as well as capturing the 1975 and 1976 ACC championships. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications in 1978.

A native of Winchester, Va., Garber and his wife, Linda, have three children: Rusty, Laurie Beth and Derek.

SECONDARY

JERRY GRAY

22nd NFL Season/4th Redskins

Jerry Gray begins his fourth season as the Redskins secondary coach after spending the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills. Gray has amassed more than two decades of NFL experience: nine seasons as a player and 12 as an assistant coach.

In 2008, the Redskins' secondary was led by veterans Carlos Rogers, Fred Smoot, and Shawn Springs, with the midseason addition of DeAngelo Hall. Rogers had a team-high 32 passes defensed with two interceptions and 53 tackles. Hall finished the season with two interceptions in just seven games as a Redskin, and had assumed a starting cornerback position by season's end.

Gray's secondary played a crucial role in the 2008 Redskins defense finishing the season ranked fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8) and sixth overall in points allowed per game (18.5).

In 2007, the Redskins' secondary was diminished by the loss of young starting cornerback Rogers to Injured Reserve following Week 8, but still managed to hold opponents to 214.0 passing yards per game. Springs and Smoot combined for 129 tackles (114 solo), five interceptions and 29 passes defensed. Gray also guided unheralded third-year corner Leigh Torrence to add depth at the position, totaling 33 tackles (24 solo) and a sack.

While with Buffalo in 2005, the Bills' defense battled multiple injuries and finished 29th in the league in total defense.

In 2004, Gray led a defense that finished second in the NFL in total defense and top five in the NFL in touchdowns allowed (29), yards allowed per game (264.2), passing yards allowed per game (164.0), sacks registered (45) and led the league with 39 turnovers forced.

He orchestrated a major defensive turnaround in 2003 when his unit finished the year ranked second in the NFL in total defense (second against the pass, eighth against the run). His defense also ranked fifth overall in points allowed in 2003.

Prior to joining the Bills in 2001, Gray spent the previous four seasons as an assistant at the Tennessee Titans, including the last two as defensive backs coach. He helped Tennessee finish as the NFL's No. 1-ranked pass defense and total defense, and also guided CB Samari Rolle and S Blaine Bishop to All-Pro selections.

Gray originally started with the Titans as the defensive assistant/quality control coach in 1997 before being elevated to the defensive backs position. He broke into the coaching ranks in 1995 as the defensive backs coach at Southern Methodist.

Gray played nine seasons in the NFL, earning All-Pro honors four times. He played with the Los Angeles Rams (1985-91), Houston Oilers (1992), and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993) before retiring.

He was a four-time Pro Bowler at cornerback (1986-89) with the Rams, finishing with 28 career interceptions during his nine seasons in the NFL. He posted a season-high eight interceptions in 1986, just his second year in the NFL. He was also named the NFL's Defensive Back-of-the-Year in 1989 and earned MVP honors in the 1990 Pro Bowl.

A native of Lubbock, Texas, Gray holds a bachelor of science degree in speech communications from the University of Texas. He was a two-time consensus All-American and two-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year as a safety at Texas in 1983 and '84 and was a first-round pick (21st overall) in 1985 of the Los Angeles Rams.

Gray was a member of the University of Texas' All-Time Team and All-Decade Team for the 1980's. He lettered in football, basketball and track at Estacado High in Lubbock and was inducted into the Texas High School Hall of Fame in 1995 and recently named to the All-Time Texas High School team.

He and his wife, Sherry, have two sons: Jeremy and Jayden.

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

JOHN HASTINGS

15th NFL Season/8th Redskins

John Hastings enters his eighth season as head of the Redskins' strength and conditioning program. He joined the Washington Redskins in 2002 after spending seven seasons with the San Diego Chargers (1995-2001).

Hastings works directly with assistant strength and conditioning coaches Bobby Crumpler and Harrison Bernstein in overseeing the Redskins' off season workout program, getting Washington's players in peak playing condition for training camp and the upcoming season.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Hastings spent seven seasons with San Diego (1995-2001), serving as head strength and conditioning coach for the last five. He joined the Chargers as an intern in 1990 and remained until he was hired as an assistant coach in 1995.

A native of Newport News, Va., Hastings earned his degree in psychology and physical therapy from Ohio University in 1987. He and his wife, Lori, have a son, Alexander, and a daughter, Taylor.

WIDE RECEIVERS

STAN HIXON

6th NFL Season/6th Redskins

Stan Hixon enters his sixth season as the Redskins wide receivers coach. In 29 years of coaching on both the college and professional level, Hixon has developed outstanding talent at the wide receiver position.

Hixon's unit is led by a pair of veterans in Santana Moss (79 receptions for 1,044 yards and six touchdowns in 2008) and Antwaan Randle El (53 receptions for 593 yards and four touchdowns in 2008). This marked the third 1,000 yard receiving season of Moss's career, and his second with 75 or more catches. Randle El's 53 catches and four receiving touchdowns also set career highs.

In 2009, Hixon will continue to oversee the development of a pair of young receivers taken in the second round of the 2008 draft. Devin Thomas and Malcolm Kelly both saw their rookie campaigns hindered by injury, but each showed flashes of playmaking ability, and the duo enters the 2009 season with high expectations. Hixon's successful college coaching experience makes him an excellent guide for young players like Thomas and Kelly.

Under Hixon's tutelage, Moss had a breakout season in 2005 — his first year with the Redskins — that ended with his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Moss set a new Redskins franchise record with 1,483 receiving yards on the season, surpassing the previous mark held by Hall of Famer Bobby Mitchell (1,436). Moss also led the team in receptions (84) and average yards per catch (17.7), and was second with nine touchdowns. He finished second in the NFL in receiving yards and sixth in the NFC and 10th in the NFL in receptions. Moss was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week twice after remarkable performances at Dallas (five catches, 159 yards, two fourth-quarter TD catches) and home against the New York Giants (five

Prior to joining the Redskins, Hixon coached four years at LSU (2000-03). He served as associate head coach in addition to wide receivers coach and was part of the Tigers' 2003 NCAA National Championship team. He coached players to three 1,000-yard seasons and had a player named first-team All-SEC three times.

Overall, Hixon has coached eight players on the college level who have gone on to careers in the NFL: Robert Brooks (Green Bay and Denver), Kelly Campbell (Minnesota, Miami and Tampa Bay), Michael Clayton (Tampa Bay), Devery Henderson (New Orleans), Skyler Green (Dallas, Cincinnati and New Orleans), Eddie Miller (Indianapolis), Josh Reed (Buffalo) and Dez White (Chicago and Atlanta).

Under Hixon's guidance, Clayton became the fifth 1,000-yard receiver in LSU history and the second under Hixon. In 2003, Clayton set the school's all-time mark for career touchdown receptions with 21. That year, Clayton, Henderson and Green combined for 171 catches for 2,374 yards and 26 touchdowns.

In 2001, Hixon coached Reed to one of the most dominating seasons ever by a receiver in SEC history. Reed caught a school-record 94 passes for an SEC-record 1,740 yards and seven touchdowns. He was named an All-American and won the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to college football's top wide receiver. Reed completed his three-year college career, two of which were coached by Hixon, with a then-SEC record 3,001 receiving yards on 167 receptions.

Prior to LSU, Hixon coached wide receivers at Georgia Tech (1995-99), developing a pair of All-ACC receivers in Campbell and White. He previously coached running backs for two seasons at Wake Forest (1993-94).

Hixon served as wide receivers coach at South Carolina (1989-92), producing All-Americans Brooks and Miller, and at Appalachian State (1983-88). He began his college coaching career overseeing running backs at Morehead State (1980-82).

Hixon was a standout receiver at Iowa State. He starred in the Peach Bowl in 1977 and the Hall of Fame Bowl in 1978.

Hixon is a native of Lakeland, Fla. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Iowa State and earned his master's degree at Morehead State. Hixon and his wife, Rebecca, have three children: son Drew, and daughters Adele and Avis.

SAFETIES

STEVE JACKSON

18th NFL Season/6th Redskins

Steve Jackson joined the Washington Redskins coaching staff in 2004 bringing invaluable experience to the defensive backfield. In addition to coaching the safeties and specializing in third-down packages for the Buffalo Bills for three seasons (2001-03), Jackson played nine years as a defensive back in the NFL.

That experience paid dividends in 2008, when, under Jackson's tutelage, rookie safety Chris Horton made a tremendous impact in his debut year, far surpassing the expectations of a seventh-round pick. When projected starter Reed Doughty was ruled out with an illness for a Week 2 game against New Orleans, Horton stepped in and was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week after registering two interceptions and a fumble recovery in the game.

Horton was also named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for September. In Week 6, against St. Louis, Horton was perhaps Washington's best defensive player as he led the team with 12 tackles, including three for loss and many more near the line of scrimmage, and a forced fumble. He followed that up the next week against Cleveland with nine tackles and a pass defensed.

In his second season under Jackson, after moving to free safety during training camp, LaRon Landry recorded 70 tackles, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, and 13 passes defensed, and was voted as the first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad at his position.

Jackson's safeties played a crucial role in the 2008 Redskins defense finishing the season ranked fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8) and sixth overall in points allowed per game (18.5).

Jackson played a major role in developing the late Sean Taylor into a two-time Pro Bowl performer with the team. Before his tragic death in 2007, Taylor was enjoying his most successful season in the NFL. Through Week 12, he had amassed 46 tackles (34 solo) and was tied for third in the NFL in interceptions (five). Taylor was selected as a posthumous starter for the 2008 Pro Bowl and named first-team All-Pro.

Jackson originally joined the coaching staff of the Buffalo Bills in 2001. He was responsible for coaching the team's safeties, as well as organizing and implementing the defensive unit's third-down package.

Jackson played nine seasons in the NFL (1991-99) as a defensive back for the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans. He played in 127 games and during that span made 28 starts, finishing his career with 14 interceptions and nine sacks. Jackson originally entered the NFL as a third-round selection (71st overall) by the Houston Oilers in the 1991 NFL Draft.

Jackson was awarded the Ed Block Courage Award in 1998 after rehabbing a ruptured tendon during the offseason. He posted a career-high 72 tackles during the 1998 campaign.

His best season came in 1993 when he played in all 16 games and started 12 with a career-high five interceptions. One of his interceptions occurred in a postseason play off Kansas City's Joe Montana. He concluded his playing career with an appearance in Super Bowl XXXIV against the St. Louis Rams.

A four-year starter at cornerback out of Purdue, Jackson earned Associated Press honorable mention All-America, Gannett First-Team All-America and All-Big Ten selections as a senior. He was a semi-finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as a senior, annually given to the nation's top defensive back.

Jackson was an advertising major while at Purdue. He has a daughter, Dominique, and a son, Stephen.

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

BILL KHAYAT

6th NFL Season/3rd Redskins

Bill Khayat is in his third season as the Redskins offensive quality control coach, and also assists with the tight ends. In his role helping with the tight ends, Khayat has contributed to the development of 2008 second-round draft pick Fred Davis, as well as the continued emergence of two-time Pro Bowl tight end Chris Cooley.

Before coming to the Redskins in 2007, Khayat spent the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals (2004-06) serving as the offensive quality control coach and assisting with the offensive line.

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 2004, Khayat spent four seasons at Tennessee State as the school's running backs coach and recruiting coordinator (2003) and tight ends coach and video coordinator (2000-02).

A standout tight end at Duke University from 1992-95, Khayat was twice named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference second team, was an honorable mention All-America pick in 1994 and was named to the All-Carolina team that same year.

Khayat became the first Duke tight end to lead the team in receptions in 25 years. He set the Hall of Fame Bowl game records with 11 receptions for 109 yards against Wisconsin.

Despite missing most of his senior season with a groin injury, Khayat still finished his collegiate career with 105 receptions for 1,155 yards and seven touchdowns.

After graduating from Duke, Khayat spent time in the NFL on practice squads with Kansas City (1996) and Carolina (1997), and in 1998 he played for the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe.

Born March 26, 1973 in Camden, N.J., Khayat was a three-sport star at York Catholic High School in York, Pa. In addition to being an all-state football player, he was the starting center for the state champion basketball team and an all-county selection as a catcher for the school's baseball team. He was honored by his high school when his football jersey (No. 30) was retired in 1991 and he was named the outstanding student-athlete. In 2002, Khayat was elected to the York Catholic High School Sports Hall of Fame.

Khayat credits his father, Eddie, who played 10 years (three of them with the Redskins) and coached 25 years in the NFL for helping to develop his knowledge and appreciation of the game. His mother, Deborah, is an accomplished writer who graduated with honors from The Catholic University of America, in Washington, D.C.

Khayat earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in biological anthropology and anatomy from Duke in 1995. He was on the Distinguished Dean's List at Duke and was named to the Academic All-ACC Football team.

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

CHRIS MEIDT

2nd NFL Season/2nd Redskins

Chris Meidt joined the Redskins as an offensive coaching assistant in 2008, and was instrumental in the continued development of quarterback Jason Campbell. Under Meidt and Head Coach Jim Zorn, Jason Campbell completed 62.3 percent of his passes for 3,245 yards and 13 touchdowns and a quarterback rating of 84.3, all career highs. Campbell's six interceptions also ranked him first in the NFL in interception percentage (1.2%).

Prior to coming to the Redskins, Meidt spent the previous six seasons as the head football coach at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., where he laid the foundation for a championship program. From 2002-07, Meidt compiled a 40-20 record and led the Oles to three straight eight-win seasons for the first time since 1969-71. In 2007, Meidt's offense ranked third in the nation in points per game (49.2).

Meidt came to the St. Olaf football program following a successful tenure at Bethel University in St. Paul, where he served as offensive coordinator from 1995-2001.

Meidt helped lead Bethel to consecutive MIAC crowns in 2000 and 2001.

The American Football Coaches Association named Meidt, who coached five first team All-Americans at Bethel, the 2001 National Assistant Coach of the Year.

He served as an offensive coordinator at Columbia Heights (Minn.) High School from 1990-1993 and at Becker (Minn.) High School in 1993 and 1994.

A 1988 graduate of Minnesota High

Meidt set national passing records for career attempts (1,122), completions (646) and touchdown passes (101).

Meidt received a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Bethel University in 1992 and an MBA from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota in 1996. Prior to his coaching and teaching career, Meidt was a computer systems analyst at Burlington Northern Railroad in St. Paul. He and his wife, Allison, have three children: daughter Madeline and twins, son Alexander and daughter Eveline.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
RUNNING BACKS

STUMP MITCHELL

20th NFL Season/2nd Redskins

Stump Mitchell joined the Redskins' coaching staff in 2008, adding a fresh perspective to the Redskins' talented group of running backs. He arrived at Redskins Park from the Seattle Seahawks, where he spent the previous nine seasons coaching the running backs. From 2001-2007, he coached alongside current Redskins head coach Jim Zorn, who was quarterback coach there at the time.

"Stump is an excellent teacher," Zorn said. "He has been a running back in this league and I've gotten the opportunity to know him well during our time together in Seattle. I've seen firsthand how he teaches and he is a great addition to our coaching staff."

Under Mitchell's tutelage, running back Clinton Portis had his second-best season as a Redskin, rushing for 1,487 yards and nine touchdowns, and catching 28 passes for an additional 218 yards. His rushing yards and total yards both ranked fourth in the NFL for the year, and when Portis rushed for more than 100 yards, as he did six times, the Redskins lost only one game.

In the fourth quarter when ball control is most important, Mitchell's running game was particularly effective. Portis led the league with 22 fourth-quarter rushing first downs, and was fourth in the league with 378 fourth-quarter rushing yards.

Of the Redskins four Pro Bowlers, two came from Mitchell's backfield — Portis and fullback Mike Sellers — and two more were instrumental in blocking for the running game (left tackle Chris Samuels and tight end Chris Cooley).

Mitchell coached a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his first seven seasons in Seattle (Ricky Watters for two years, Shaun Alexander for five years).

In 2005, Alexander led the NFL and set a franchise record with 1,880 rushing yards. He also set an NFL record with 28 total touchdowns (NFL record 27 rushing touchdowns, one receiving touchdown) en route to an MVP season and third Pro Bowl berth. (The touchdown mark was broken in 2006 by San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson.) In 2004, Alexander led the NFC with 1,696 rushing yards and 20 touchdowns.

Mitchell joined the Seahawks following three years as head coach at Morgan State University. He originally joined the MSU staff in 1995 as offensive coordinator, earning a promotion to head coach the following year. Under Mitchell's tutelage, the Bears boasted a strong rushing attack that averaged 148.9 yards per game in 1997.

Mitchell's coaching career began in 1991, when he served as an assistant coach on the World League of American Football's San Antonio Riders' staff. He then accepted a position as the head coach at Casa Grande (Ariz.) High School (1991-94), where he led the team to a playoff berth in his second year.

Mitchell played nine years in the NFL as a standout running back with the St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals. He was a ninth-round draft choice by the Cardinals in 1981 and would go on to become one of the great running backs and kick returners in Cardinals history.

Mitchell is the Cardinals' all-time leader in combined yardage with 11,988 yards, and ranks second with 4,649 yards rushing on 986 attempts and 32 touchdowns. His 177 kickoff returns for 4,007 yards are both franchise records. He posted 14 100-yard games and finished with a 4.7-yard rushing average, second-best in the franchise history.

With a 5.6-yard rushing average as a rookie in 1981, Mitchell earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly. In 1984, he earned All-NFC honors as a kickoff returner from Pro Football Weekly. On Nov. 17, 1985, he set a career high with 179 rushing yards against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Mitchell was honored with the Chuck Drulis Award for community service in 1982 and the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award for charity work in 1984. He was born on March 15, 1959, in Kingsland, Ga.

KIRK OLIVADOTTI

10th NFL Season/10th Redskins

Kirk Olivadotti enters his 10th season with the Redskins and his third as Washington's linebackers coach. From 2000-2007, Olivadotti served as a defensive assistant and quality control coach.

Olivadotti has been a member of Redskins coaching staffs that have guided Washington to finish among the top 10 in overall defense in seven of his nine seasons with the club.

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8), sixth overall in points allowed per game (18.5) and eighth overall in rushing yards allowed per game (95.4 yards). For the second consecutive season, middle linebacker London Fletcher led the team with 146 tackles and outside linebacker Rocky McIntosh finished second with 104 stops.

The previous year, in Olivadotti's first season as linebacker's coach, Washington finished eighth in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 yards per game) and fourth in the league in overall rush defense (91.3 yards per game). The tandem of Fletcher (156 tackles) and McIntosh (105 tackles) finished as the team's top tacklers.

Throughout his NFL coaching career, Olivadotti has worked with some of the best defensive minds in the NFL, including Ray Rhodes, Marvin Lewis, Gregg Williams and Greg Blache.

Olivadotti began his NFL coaching career with the Redskins in 2000 as a defensive quality control coach. He served in that role for four seasons and also helped coach the defensive backs.

He continued as quality control coach in 2004, but he took on a role assisting Danny Smith and the Redskins' special teams unit. In 2006, Olivadotti's role expanded to working with Blache and the Redskins' defensive line.

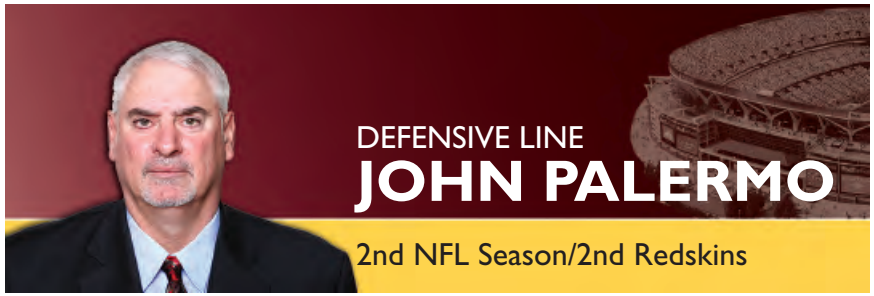
Olivadotti began his coaching career on the college level, working with wide receivers and tight ends at Maine Maritime for one season (1997).

He moved to Indiana State as an assistant coach for two years (1998-99) before making the transition to Washington and the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letter winner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. Olivadotti earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He is the son of Tom Olivadotti, a long-time defensive coach in the NFL with Cleveland, Miami, Minnesota, New York Giants and Houston. Olivadotti and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn. The family resides in Ashburn, Va.



DEFENSIVE LINE

JOHN PALERMO

2nd NFL Season/2nd Redskins

John Palermo enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive line coach after a decorated collegiate coaching career that spanned 30 seasons.

In 2008, in his first season with the Redskins, Palermo's defensive line helped Washington rank fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8) and eighth overall in rushing yards per game (95.4). The Redskins' defense also limited their opponents to the sixth-fewest points per game (18.5) last season. Washington's defensive line registered 19 sacks in 2008, and this past offseason, the Redskins signed the top free agent in the National Football League in DT Albert Haynesworth, who posted a career-best 8.5 sacks with the Tennessee Titans last year.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Palermo was one of the most respected defensive line coaches in college football. He coached on 18 bowl teams, including Notre Dame's 1988 National Championship club and three Wisconsin teams that won the Big Ten and the Rose Bowl (1993, 1998 and 1999).

Palermo's last collegiate coaching position was a one-year stint as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Tennessee Tech. Prior to that, he was a defensive line coach for one season at the University of Miami. The Hurricanes defense, anchored by Palermo's line, set a school record by limiting opponents to just 252.0 yards per game and 66.0 rushing yards per game. The defense ranked among national leaders in total defense and rush defense.

From 1991-2005, Palermo served as an assistant head coach at the University of Wisconsin. He directed the Badgers' outside linebackers from 1991-95 and the defensive line from 1996-2005.

While at Wisconsin, Palermo produced four first-team All-Americans. His players were selected Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year four times - two were named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year - and named first-team All-Big Ten nine times. Eight of Palermo's defensive linemen have been chosen in the first six rounds of the NFL Draft, including two - Wendell Bryant in 2002 and Erasmus James in 2005 - who were taken in the first round. Palermo's entire 2004 defensive line was selected in the NFL Draft the following spring. In 1990, Palermo spent one season as the head coach at Austin Peay University.

From 1988-89, Palermo was the defensive line coach for head coach Lou Holtz at Notre Dame, helping the Fighting Irish win the National Championship in his first year. He helped tutor Chris Zorich, a two-time consensus All-American and 1990 winner of the Lombardi Award, given annually to college football's best lineman or linebacker.

At Notre Dame, Palermo worked with current Redskins Executive Vice President of Football Operations Vinny Cerrato, who served as the football recruiting coordinator for the Fighting Irish at that time.

Palermo coached the defensive line at Minnesota from 1984-87, served as assistant head coach-defensive line and linebackers coach at Appalachian State from 1983-84 and coached the defensive line at Memphis State from 1980-82. He had a first stint at Austin Peay in 1979 as a defensive line coach. Palermo began his coaching career as an assistant at North Carolina State from 1977-78.

A native of Newburgh, N.Y., Palermo lettered at Florida State in 1972-73. He earned a degree in education from Florida State in 1974. He and his wife, Donna, have a son, Jason, and a daughter, Jessica, who is a graduate student at Georgetown University.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

DANNY SMITH

15th NFL Season/6th Redskins

Danny Smith, an energetic presence on and off the field, has directed the Redskins' special teams since 2004, establishing Washington as one of the top returning and coverage units in the National Football League.

Smith is entering his sixth season with the Redskins and his 15th overall NFL campaign.

In 2008, Smith's kickoff return unit finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL in average starting field position (29.0 yard line). Smith's coverage unit finished sixth in the NFL last season as the average drive for Washington's opponents started on the 25.7-yard line. Kick returner Rock Cartwright finished the season fourth in the NFC in kickoff return yards (1,307) and sixth in kickoff return average (25.6). Under Smith, Cartwright had three kickoff returns of 50 or more yards in 2008 (50, 58 and 87 yards) and also posted the second-longest kickoff return of his career, an 87-yard return at Cincinnati (12/14). In addition, Santana Moss returned just his second punt attempt of the season for an 80-yard touchdown at Detroit (10/26) and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week

In 2007, the Redskins' kickoff return units ranked fourth in the NFL and second in the NFC in average starting field position (30.8-yard line). Cartwright, who set a pair of club single-season records in kickoff returns (64) and kickoff return yardage (1,541) in 2006, followed with 1,339 yards on 52 kickoff returns for a 25.7-yard average.

2001-03	Buffalo Bills	Special Teams
2004-Present	Washington Redskins	Special Teams

Smith's kickoff coverage unit allowed just 19.2 yards per return, third-best in the NFL. The punt coverage unit prospered as well, allowing 6.8 yards per return, sixth-best in the NFL.

Smith also helped develop kicker Shaun Suisham, who is the all-time leader in club history in field goal percentage (78.8%), connecting on 63-of-80 field goals (minimum 40 attempts).

The Redskins' special teams were represented in the Pro Bowl following the 2007 season, with Ethan Albright earning a spot in the all-star game as the NFC's long snapper.

In 2006, Smith's special teams ranked among the best in the NFL. The unit finished fourth in the league in kickoff coverage and eighth in punt coverage. Cartwright returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in Week 2 at Dallas and Antwaan Randle El returned a punt 87 yards for a touchdown against Indianapolis. Rocky McIntosh and Vernon Fox blocked punts during the season, while Troy Vincent blocked a field goal that led to a dramatic, last-second win over Dallas at FedExField.

In 2005, Smith's second year with the Redskins, the special teams finished second in the NFL in punt coverage and sixth in kickoff coverage.

Prior to the Redskins, Smith coached the Buffalo Bills' special teams from 2001-03. In Smith's last year in Buffalo, the Bills finished third in the NFL in kickoff coverage. His kicking specialists ranked in the top 10 in field goal percentage and gross and net punting average.

Smith was tight ends coach with the Detroit Lions from 1999-2000. He had a four-year stint with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-98, serving two seasons as special teams coach and two coaching the defensive backs.

Before joining the NFL coaching ranks, Smith spent eight years at Georgia Tech (1987-94) where he coached several positions including running backs, wide receivers and defensive backs. He helped coach the Yellow Jackets team that split the National Championship with Colorado in 1990.

Smith began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater Edinboro State. He also coached at The Citadel, William & Mary and Clemson.

Smith entered the coaching ranks at his high school alma mater Central Catholic High School in Pittsburgh where he helped tutor future Miami Dolphins quarterback and Hall of Famer Dan Marino.

Smith graduated from Edinboro State. He and his wife, Elaine, have three children: Erin, Courtney and Jason.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

SHERMAN SMITH

24th NFL Season/2nd Redskins

Sherman Smith enters his second season with the Redskins after he was named Washington's offensive coordinator on February 22, 2008. Redskins Head Coach Jim Zorn targeted Smith to join his coaching staff immediately after being named head coach, reuniting the one-time Seattle Seahawks teammates (1976-82).

A veteran of 23 seasons as both a player and assistant coach in the National Football League, Smith works directly with Zorn on implementing and organizing the Redskins' offensive game plan.

"Sherman brings outstanding leadership to our team and we are fortunate to have him as member of our coaching staff," Zorn said. "He will continue to lead the effort in putting together our game plan each week, both in our offensive staff meetings and in our player meetings."

In his first season with the Redskins in 2008, Smith helped lead the Redskins' transition to the West Coast Offense, a short, horizontal passing attack that spreads defenses and opens up running lanes.

Four members of the Redskins' offense were named to the 2008 Pro Bowl – TE Chris Cooley, RB Clinton Portis, T Chris Samuels and FB Mike Sellers. Portis made his second Pro Bowl and his first as a member of the Redskins after he registered the second-most rushing yards (1,487) in a single season in franchise history. Cooley earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl with a career-best 83 receptions. Samuels earned his sixth Pro Bowl appearance, the third-most in club history, while Mike Sellers was named to his first Pro Bowl after he paved the way for Portis to finish fourth in the NFL with the aforementioned 1,487 rushing yards.

Smith's coaching background is primarily with running backs, but he has worked under several offensive

Prior to joining the Redskins, Smith spent 13 seasons as running backs coach with the Tennessee Titans (1995-2007). He also held the title of assistant head coach the last two seasons.

In his final season with the Titans in 2008, Tennessee finished with the NFL's fifth-ranked rushing attack, averaging 131.8 yards per game. Under Smith's guidance, second-year running back LenDale White led the Titans offense with 1,110 rushing yards on 303 carries. His yardage total placed eighth in the AFC. He logged five 100-yard rushing performances and led the Titans with seven rushing touchdowns.

In 2006, Tennessee amassed the sixth-highest rushing total in Titans/Oilers franchise history with 2,214 rushing yards. The team's yards-per-carry average of 4.72 established a new franchise mark. Travis Henry led the Titans' ground game with 1,211 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on 270 carries, while White added 244 rushing yards on 61 carries as a rookie.

From 1996-2003, Smith helped running back Eddie George develop into one of the great running backs in NFL history. With 10,441 career rushing yards, George places 22nd on the NFL's all-time rushing list. George is one of 24 running backs in NFL history to reach 10,000 career rushing yards and only the second to reach the mark without missing a game. (The other was Hall of Famer Jim Brown.)

Before joining the Titans, Smith was an assistant coach at Illinois for three seasons. He coached tight ends from 1992-93 and running backs in 1994. Smith also coached running backs at Miami (Ohio) University, his alma mater, from 1990-91.

Smith played nine years in the NFL as a running back, mostly with Seattle. He joined the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice (58th overall) in 1976 and led the team in rushing yardage in each of his first four seasons. For his career, Smith compiled 3,520 rushing yards and 28 touchdowns on 834 carries, as well as 217 receptions for 2,393 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Smith departed Seattle in 1983 as the Seahawks' all-time rushing yardage leader. (He totaled 3,429 rushing yards in Seattle, which is currently sixth-best behind Shaun Alexander, Curt Warner, Chris Warren, John L. Williams and Ricky Watters). He is also fourth in Seahawks' history with 28 rushing touchdowns. Smith closed out his career with the San Diego Chargers from 1983-84.

At Miami (Ohio), Smith played quarterback. He led the Redhawks to a 33-1-1 record and the Mid-American Conference crown his last three years.

Upon retiring from playing football in 1984, Smith was a high school teacher and football, basketball and track coach for five years at Redmond Junior High School in Redmond, Wash.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Smith and his wife Sharon have two children: daughter Shavonne, an elementary school teacher in Nashville, and son Sherman, also a graduate of Miami (Ohio) and resident of Raleigh, N.C.

TIGHT ENDS

SCOTT WACHENHEIM

1st NFL Season/1st Redskins

Scott Wachenheim enters his first season with the Redskins after being named Washington's tight ends coach on February 5, 2009.

Wachenheim comes to Washington after serving 21 seasons on the collegiate level, the last three as Liberty University's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach (2006-2008). He added the title of assistant head coach in 2007.

In 2008, Liberty finished 10-2 on its way to its second straight Big South Conference championship, while averaging 33.7 points and 446.7 yards per game. The latter total ranked ninth in the Football Championship Subdivision and marked the second year in a row Liberty led the conference in total offense as they averaged 429.6 yards a game in 2007, while scoring 42.6 points per contest. Last season, the Flames topped the 30-point mark in eight of their 12 contests, including scoring at least 42 points on four occasions. In addition, Liberty boasted the conference's leading individual passer, rusher and receiver.

In 2006, Liberty's offense finished ranked in the nation's top twenty in many offensive categories. The Flames tied for first nationally for fewest turnovers lost (8), ninth in sacks allowed (1.0 per game), 10th in third down conversions (47.5 percent), 17th in rushing touchdowns (23), 19th in rushing offense (185.0 yards per game), 18th in time of possession (31:44) and 20th in tackles for a loss allowed (4.55). Prior to his tenure at the Lynchburg, Va., school, Wachenheim spent 12 years as a member of Ken Hatfield's coaching staff at Rice University (1994-2005). He spent the final five years as the Owls' offensive coordinator.

During the 2004 season, Rice led the nation in rushing offense (306.5 yards per game), while the Owls' 2003 squad ranked second in the country, racking up a school-record 3,800 rushing yards. In 2001 under Wachenheim's direction, Rice set its school record for points scored (333) and total offense (4,846 yards).

Prior to joining the Rice staff, Wachenheim served as recruiting coordinator and offensive tackles and tight ends coach at Utah State (1992-93), where he worked with Redskins head coach Jim Zorn, who was serving as the Aggies' offensive coordinator. He culminated his tenure at the school with a Big West Conference title and a Las Vegas Bowl victory in 1993.

Wachenheim commenced his collegiate coaching career in 1984 when, after graduating from the Air Force Academy with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he served as offensive coordinator of the school's junior varsity squad. He then went on to complete his military requirements.

Wachenheim returned to the coaching ranks at Arkansas in 1989-90, helping the Razorbacks to a Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl invitation.

Additionally, Wachenheim earned his master's degree in athletic administration from the school in 1991.

Wachenheim spent the 1991 football season at Colorado under the leadership of head coach Bill McCartney, helping the Buffaloes win the Big 8 Conference championship and earn a berth in the Blockbuster Bowl.

As a player, Wachenheim was a four-year starter (1980-83) on the offensive line at the Air Force Academy. He earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference and honorable mention All-American honors his senior year. The 1983 Falcons finished with a 10-2 record, were ranked second in the nation in rushing offense.

A native of Woodland Hills, Calif., Wachenheim and his wife, Karla, have two sons: Kyle and Tyson.

Front Office

Scott Campbell enters his 23rd NFL season and his ninth overall with the Washington Redskins. Campbell has had two different stints overseeing either the club's college or pro scouting departments during his tenure with Washington, and assumed an expanded role directing both departments in the 2008 offseason.

"Scott has proven to be adept in identifying talent on both the college and professional level and has been a tremendous asset to our organization in his current role," Executive Vice President of Football Operations Vinny Cerrato said.

In an aggressive start to the 2009 free agency period this past offseason, Campbell and his staff targeted and quickly signed two-time Pro Bowl DT Albert Haynesworth, re-signed CB DeAngelo Hall and inked G Derrick Dockery.

In the 2008 NFL Draft, Campbell's first as Redskins Director of Player Personnel, the team selected S Chris Horton in the seventh round (249th overall). Horton went on to start 14 games and finished first on the team with three interceptions, and was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie Team.

Campbell originally joined the Redskins in 2001 as Director of College Scouting, overseeing the area scouts and assisting with the Redskins draft operations before heading up the scouting of pro personnel for the next four seasons. He returned again in 2006 to take charge of the college scouting department, where he spent two seasons before being promoted to his current role.

As the Redskins' Director of College Scouting during the 2001 and 2006-07 seasons, Campbell's drafts produced the following starters and key contributors: LB Rocky McIntosh (second round), DTs Anthony Montgomery (fifth round) and Kedric Golston (sixth round) and S Reed Doughty (sixth round) in 2006 and LB H.B. Blades (sixth round) and first-team Pro Bowl alternate S LaRon Landry (first round) in 2007.

In his four seasons (2002-05) as the Director of Pro Personnel, the Redskins inked three starters in free agency: G Randy Thomas (2003), Pro Bowl FB Mike Sellers (2004) and C Casey Rabach (2005) and also acquired a pair of Pro Bowlers in consecutive offseasons in RB Clinton Portis (2004) and WR Santana Moss (2005).

Previously, Campbell spent the 2000 season in Chicago as the Bears' director of pro personnel, after three seasons in Kansas City, serving as the southeast area scout (1997-99).

He began his NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons in 1987, serving as an assistant to his father, Head Coach Marion Campbell – who also served as the defensive coordinator for the NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles in 1980.

Campbell spent three years as the administrative assistant to the coaching staff, helping coordinate training camp, scouting, quality control and additional football logistics. In 1990, he moved over to Atlanta's personnel department full-time for a seven-season run as an area scout.

Campbell earned his bachelor's degree in education from the University of Georgia in 1984, where he played on the offensive line for three SEC Championship squads, including the 1980 National Championship team. He went on to earn a master's degree in education from Auburn University in 1986, while working with the Tigers' football program as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Campbell and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Courtney and Caroline, and live in Ashburn, Va.

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

ERIC SCHAFFER

7th NFL Season/7th Redskins

Eric Schaffer enters his seventh season with the Redskins and his third as Vice President of Football Administration. He is responsible for overseeing all player contract negotiations, as well as the strategic planning and management of the Redskins' salary cap. Additionally, Schaffer conducts extensive research and analysis of NFL player contracts and statistics throughout the National Football League. As the club liaison for the NFL Management Council, Schaffer ensures that the Redskins remain in compliance with all NFL personnel and salary cap rules.

During the 2009 offseason, Schaffer deftly orchestrated cap flexibility to allow the Redskins to land the league's top free agent prize in DT Albert Haynesworth, while still enabling Washington to re-sign CB DeAngelo Hall and ink G Derrick Dockery. In his seven seasons (2003-09) with the Redskins, Schaffer has negotiated the contracts for all of Washington's draft picks.

In addition, Schaffer's duties have expanded to include work on the business side of the organization. He focuses on legal matters, including drafting sponsorships and licensing agreements, as well as workers' compensation.

Schaffer originally joined the Redskins in 2003 as the team's salary cap manager. He was elevated to Director of Football Administration (2005 and 2006) and has served as the Redskins' Vice President of Football Administration the past two seasons (2007 and 2008).

Prior to joining the Redskins, Schaffer spent 11 years with International Management Group (IMG) in various roles. He started as an intern for IMG's founder, the late Mark McCormack, and moved on to their motorsports division where he sold corporate sponsorships and managed young race car drivers. He eventually became the staff counsel for IMG Football, where he oversaw all legal issues related to 90 NFL clients and negotiated player contracts as an NFLPA registered agent.

Schaffer holds both a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Michigan and a law degree from Case Western Reserve University where he completed his studies while working full time for IMG. A native of Cleveland, Ohio and a member of the Ohio Bar Association, Schaffer currently resides in Ashburn, Va. with his wife, Jaymie, and two sons: Cameron (3), and Logan (1).

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

MOROCCO BROWN

10th NFL Season/3rd Redskins

Morocco Brown was named the Director of Player Personnel on May 20, 2008. He is responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of Redskins opponents and the evaluation of all pro leagues for potential free agents and trade prospects.

Brown's first full offseason back with the Redskins since his first stint with the club in 2000 featured multiple free agent signings. During the 2009 offseason, the Redskins signed two-time Pro Bowl DT Albert Haynesworth, who had a career-high 8.5 sacks with the Tennessee Titans last season, re-signed CB DeAngelo Hall and inked G Derrick Dockery.

Prior to re-joining the Redskins, Brown spent the previous seven seasons as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel with Chicago Bears (2001-07). He directed the scouting of upcoming AFC opponents and the Arena Football League for the Bears. During his tenure in Chicago, the Bears captured the 2006 NFC Championship and made the club's first Super Bowl appearance since 1985.

Brown spent the 2000 and 2001 offseasons as an assistant scout with Washington. Brown prepared weekly scouting reports, evaluated NFL prospects and managed free agent and draft prospect visits.

Brown originally entered the NFL as a scouting intern with the Indianapolis Colts in the spring of 2000.

He is a 1999 graduate of North Carolina State University, where he lettered in football for four years and served as team captain his senior season. He led the Wolfpack in tackles for three straight seasons and was twice named honorable mention All-ACC.

Brown was a teammate of Redskins' Pro Scout Alex Santos at North Carolina State. He earned a bachelor of science degree in parks, recreation and tourism with a concentration in program/sports management.

A native of Hampton, Va., Brown attended Kecoughtan High School. Brown's brother, Milan, is the head men's basketball coach at Mount St. Mary's in Maryland.

Brown and his wife, Kendra, have two children: sons Macari (3) and Macaiden (1). The family resides in Ashburn, Va.

VIDEO ASSISTANT

TODD DAVIS

3rd NFL Season/3rd Redskins

Todd Davis enters his third season as a member of the Redskins video department.

Outside of maintaining the Redskins digital media library, Davis is specifically responsible for providing special teams coach Danny Smith with all pertinent video material. During the regular season, he compiles and presents data for review by the defensive coaching staff. Davis also works closely with the club's area scouts, facilitating the distribution of college media and the requisition of their player reports ahead of April's draft.

Davis served as video intern during the 2005 and 2006 seasons before being promoted to his current position.

A 2005 graduate of the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland, Davis earned his bachelor's degree in marketing. While at College Park, Davis served as a student video assistant for Ralph Friedgen's Terrapin football program.

Davis also interned with the Washington Wizards marketing department and spent a summer as a stadium operations assistant for the Los Angeles Dodgers. In 2006, he worked as an assistant video director for the Hamburg Sea Devils of NFL Europa.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Davis is single and resides in Washington, D.C.

- His 315 completions were just one shy of Brad Johnson's club single-season record of 316, which he set in 1999.
- His completions percentage of 62.3 percent was the fifth-best single-season mark in club history.
- Finished second on the team with 258 rushing yards on 47 carries (5.5 avg.) and one touchdown; his rushing total was fifth among NFL quarterbacks and led NFC signal callers.
- Completed 24-of-36 passing attempts for 321 yards and one touchdown with a passer rating 104.1 against New Orleans (9/14).
- Tossed a game-winning and career-best 67-yard touchdown pass to WR Santana Moss late in the fourth quarter against the Saints (9/14).
- Completed 22-of-30 passing attempts for 193 yards and two touchdowns with a passer rating of 112.2 against the NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals (9/21).
- Connected on 20-of-31 passing attempts for 231 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions with a passer rating of 108.4 at Dallas (9/28).
- Completed 23-of-28 passes for 328 yards (the second-most passing yards in game in his career) and one touchdown and no interceptions with a career-high passer rating of 127.4 at Detroit (10/26).

2007 (REDSKINS)

- Completed 250-of-417 passing attempts for 2,700 yards with 12 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Detroit Lions in Week 5 (10/7).
- Completed 23-of-29 passes (79.3%) for 248 yards and tied a then-career high with two touchdown passes and recorded a career-high quarterback rating of 125.3 against the Lions.
- Tossed a career-high three touchdowns against Philadelphia (11/11).
- Completed 33-of-54 passes for a career-high 348 yards at Dallas (11/18).
- Completed a single-game club-record 33 passes at Dallas (11/18), surpassing a mark previously established by Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen (32 completions) against the Cleveland Browns in 1967.
- Sustained a knee injury in the second quarter against Chicago (12/6) and did not return.
- Missed the last three regular season games and one postseason contest with a knee injury (at New York Giants – 12/16; at Minnesota — 12/23; vs. Dallas – 12/30 and at Seattle – 1/5).
- Named co-winner of the B.J. Blanchard Award (along with LB London Fletcher) – an honor given annually to a Redskins player who best helps local media do their jobs.

2006 (REDSKINS)

- Made his NFL debut as the starting quarterback at Tampa Bay (11/19).
- Connected on his first career touchdown pass to TE Chris Cooley at Tampa Bay.
- Completed 19-of-34 completions for 196 yards and two touchdowns and finished the game with a 92.3 quarterback rating and no interceptions at Tampa Bay.
- Directed first career win against the Carolina Panthers (11/26), a 17-13 decision at FedExField in Week 12.
- Completed a then-career-long 66-yard pass completion to TE Chris Cooley at Carolina (11/26).

2005 (REDSKINS)

- Designated as the third quarterback for all 16 regular season games.

COLLEGE

- Etched his name into Southeastern Conference lore by leading a talented Auburn squad to an undefeated season (13-0) in 2004.
- Was named SEC Offensive Player of the Year and Player of the Year, selected to the coaches All-SEC First-Team, Associated Press All-SEC First Team, a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, finalist for the inaugural Manning Award given to the nation's best collegiate quarterback, semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award and was named one of the 10 players to watch for the Walter Camp Award.
- Finished his career as the all-time winningest quarterback at Auburn.
- Finished his senior season playing and starting in all 13 games and completing 188-of-270 passes for a .696 percentage, which ranked fourth nationally. In addition he threw for 20 touchdowns and seven interceptions; the 20 touchdowns tied an Auburn single-season record (Pat Sullivan, 1971).
- Named MVP of the Sugar Bowl after passing for 189 yards on 11-of-16 passing and one touchdown against Virginia Tech (1/3/05).
- Named MVP of the SEC Championship game after going 27-of-35 for 374 yards and three touchdowns against Tennessee (12/4/04); his 27 completions, 35 attempts and 374 yards were all career highs; his 374 yards passing was the fifth-most prolific game in Auburn history.
- Finished the 2003 season 181-of-293 (61.8 percent) for 2,267 yards, 10 touchdowns and seven interceptions.
- Was named Most Valuable Player of the Music City Bowl after leading the Tigers to a winning drive in the fourth quarter against Wisconsin (12/31/03).

In 2008, the Redskins became the first team in NFL history to play its first five games without an offensive turnover. Prior to throwing two interceptions in week nine against Pittsburgh, the Redskins had not thrown an interception in 12 straight contests, dating back to the 2007 season, which is an NFL record. Likewise, the Redskins' streak of 379 pass attempts without an interception, which also dated back to the 2007 season, shattered the previous NFL record of 281 by Oakland in 2001.

Players who threw a pass during this streak are:

Jason Campbell – 271
Todd Collins – 105
Antwaan Randle El – 2
Clinton Portis – 1

Campbell's 271 pass attempts without an interception is a franchise record and the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.

DEFENSIVE END
ANDRE CARTER
99

HT: 6-4 WT: 253 Birthdate: 5/12/79 9th NFL Season
California Oak Grove H.S., San Jose, Calif.

TRANSACTIONS:
• Originally selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the first round (seventh overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
• Signed with the Washington Redskins as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2006.

PRO:
• Has played in 117 career games with 112 starts.
• Career totals include 401 tackles (292 solo), 52.5 sacks, 11 forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
• Led the Redskins in sacks in each of his three seasons in Washington (six in 2006, 10.5 in 2007 and four in 2008).
• Led Redskins defensive linemen in tackles the last three seasons (72 in 2006, 67 in 2007 and 51 in 2008).
• Spent five seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (2001-05) and ranks sixth on the 49ers' all-time career sacks list (32).

2008 (REDSKINS)
• Played in 16 regular season games with 14 starts.
• Played at RDE against New York Giants (11/30) but starting streak of 43 consecutive games was snapped because of a plantar fascia tear in his right foot suffered the week before at Seattle (11/23); also played but did not start at Baltimore (12/7).
• Helped the Redskins finish fourth in the NFL in overall defense (288.8 ypg) and eighth in the league in rushing yards allowed (95.4 ypg).
• Had a team-high four sacks and led all defensive linemen with 51 tackles.
• Totaled five tackles and one sack vs. Cleveland (10/19) – the sack of Browns' QB Derek Anderson moved him past 50 career sacks (currently has 52.5 career sacks).

• Named Division III National Linebacker of the Year and Ohio Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Week three times, was named to the AP Little All-America first team and was a nominee for the Gagliardi Award - the Heisman Trophy of Division III as a senior.
• Owns school records for most tackles in a game (29) and a season (202).

PERSONAL

• Lettered in football and basketball at Villa Angela-St. Joseph High in Cleveland.
• Was the Redskins nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2008.
• Participated in the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation's "4th & Life High School Football Forum" in 2007 and 2008.
• Is the Sports Ambassador for the Children's Inn at the National Institute of Health in Bethesda, Md.
• Joined teammates at Jason Taylor Foundation's "Cool Gear for the School Year" to assist deserving area children in picking out new clothes for school at Old Navy.
• Spent the day visiting with wounded warriors at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C. with the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation in 2008.
• He and his wife, Charné, had a daughter during the 2007 offseason and welcomed their second child, a son, in July 2008.
• Elected to the John Carroll University Hall of Fame in September of 2008.
• His personal foundation, London's Bridge Foundation, helps young people in his native Cleveland, Ohio by providing test preparation, college tours and scholarships; the foundation also provides sports equipment to promote fitness.
• Was one of 89 NFL players whose foundation was awarded a grant from NFL Charities after being recognized for its work during the 2008 season.

• Named Second All-Team Southeastern Conference after junior season, starting 10 of 12 games, recording 36 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 12 stops behind the line of scrimmage, 20 quarterback pressures and seven pass deflections.
• Named Sporting News Freshman All-American and Knoxville News-Sentinel Freshman All-Southeastern Conference selection.

PERSONAL

• Has two sons, Ahsharri (8) and Albert IV (3) and one daughter, Alanie (5).
• Earned Super-Prep All-America and listed on ESPN's top 100 players in nation as senior at Hartsville (S.C.) HS. Rated as best defensive tackle by National Recruiting Advisor.
• Completed season with 110 tackles, 51 quarterback pressures and six sacks.
• Named to all-star team for North Carolina-South Carolina Shrine Bowl. Also led team to state championship in Class 4A as junior.
• Credits University of Tennessee assistant Dan Brooks as the one coach who deserves most credit for his success in his football career because of his tough discipline and reinforcements of the fundamentals of the game.
• With the help of his teammates and celebrities from the music and NASCAR industry, hosted the "Dining for Dimes" celebrity dinner and auction benefiting the March of Dimes for the past two years. The events have raised more than $120,000 to help prevent premature child births.
• For the past few years, spent quality time supporting at-risk youth from the YMCA Community Action Project (Y-Cap) in Middle Tennessee.
• In January 2008, a week prior to heading to Hawaii for his first career Pro Bowl appearance, held a free meet and greet/autograph session at Nashville Italian restaurant Mafiaoza's, thanking fans for their support of the All-Pro defensive tackle. The event raised money for the March of Dimes through optional donations.
• In 2004, began hosting his own weekly radio show.
• After being selected by the Titans, became the first Tennessee Volunteer to make a contribution ($50,000) to the newly-created Judy Jackson Scholarship Endowment Fund. The gift was in honor of Student Life Associate Director Judy Jackson, who helped him during his time in school.
• Was one of 10 players selected in the 2002 NFL Draft from the University of Tennessee, the most in school history; joined first rounders John Henderson (Jacksonville Jaguars, 9th) and Donte' Stallworth (New Orleans, 13th) as the first three players chosen from the Southeastern Conference in the draft, half of the conference's six players taken in the opening round.
• List of Favorites: (TV show) "CSI"; (book) "The Jesus Family Tomb"; (music artists) Eminem and Jay Z; (actors) Chris Tucker, Morgan Freeman, Samuel L. Jackson, Angelina Jolie; (sports media personality) Sean Salisbury; (restaurant) Fleming's Prime Steakhouse; (car) Ford F-650; and (video game) EA Sports NASCAR.

MOST 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES IN REDSKINS HISTORY
(entering 2009)

Player	Seasons	100-yard games
Clinton Portis	2004-present	25
Larry Brown	1969-76	19
John Riggins	1978-79, 81-85	19
Stephen Davis	1996-2002	18

• Owns top two and four of the top 10 single-season rushing marks in club history (1,516 rushing yards in 2005; 1,487 in 2008; 1,315 in 2004 and 1,262 in 2007).
• With a five-yard run in the second quarter at Cincinnati (12/14), reached 9,000 rushing yards for his career.
• Tied for seventh in the NFC in rushing touchdowns (9) with New Orleans Saints' RB Pierre Thomas and Philadelphia Eagles' RB Brian Westbrook.
• Posted his 38th rushing touchdown of his Redskins career at Philadelphia (10/5), moving past RB Terry Allen for third all-time in club history.
• Redskins finished 5-1 in 2008 when Portis rushed for more than 100 yards.
• Topped the 100-yard rushing mark in a club record five straight contests - 121 rushing yards, at Dallas, (9/28); 145, at Philadelphia, (10/5); 129 vs. St. Louis, (10/12); 175, vs. Cleveland (10/19) and 126, at Detroit (10/26).
• Tied his own club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (5), which he also did in 2005, a record shared by Rob Goode (1951) and Ladell Betts (2006).
• Became only the second player in NFL history with 120 rushing yards in five consecutive games twice in a career (O.J. Simpson in 1973 and 1975).
• Previously accomplished the feat in his final four games of 2003 with Denver and posted his fifth consecutive 120-yard game in 2004 when he joined Washington.
• With 175-yard and 145-yard performances against the Browns and Eagles, had two of the top 20 single-game rushing totals in the NFL.

HT: 6-4 WT: 295 Birthdate: 9/24/77 9th NFL Season

Wisconsin Sturgeon Bay H.S., Sturgeon Bay, Wis.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the third round (92nd overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
- Signed with the Washington Redskins as an unrestricted free agent on March 2, 2005.

PRO:

- Has appeared in 105 regular season contests with 86 starts.
- Also played in four postseason games with three starts.
- Played both the guard and center positions early in career before starting his last 63 games at center with the Redskins.
- Started 63 of the last 64 games at center for the Redskins (missed game with an injured groin vs. Arizona, 10/21/07).
- Has played with the Baltimore Ravens (2001-04) and the Washington Redskins (2005-08).

2008 (REDSKINS)

- Started in all 16 regular season games.
- Paved the way for RB Clinton Portis to rank fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,487) and total yards from scrimmage (1,705).
- Helped lead the way for Portis and FB Mike Sellers to earn a spot on the 2008 Pro Bowl squad.
- Strong blocker who helped Portis tie the NFL lead in total first downs (86) with Chicago Bears' RB Matt Forte and Atlanta Falcons' RB Michael Turner.
- Paved the way for Portis to have the second-most rushing yards (1,487) in a single-season in club history.
- Opened up running lanes for Portis to post more than 120 yards rushing in five consecutive contests (121 rushing yards, at Dallas, (9/28); 145 at Philadelphia, (10/5); 129 vs. St. Louis, (10/12); 175 vs. Cleveland, (10/19) and 126 at Detroit, (10/26).
- Helped Portis become only the second player in NFL history with 120 rushing yards in five consecutive games twice in a career (O.J. Simpson in 1973 and 1975), Portis previously accomplished the feat in his final four games of 2003 with Denver and posted his fifth consecutive 120-yard game in 2004 when he joined Washington.
- Led the way for Portis to tie a club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five straight contests in 2008), a record shared by Rob Goode (1951), Portis (2005) and Ladell Betts (2006).
- Provided outstanding protection to allow QB Jason Campbell to establish a club record with 271 consecutive passes without an interception.

2007 (REDSKINS)

- Played in and started 15 games at center (missed one game with a groin injury vs. Arizona, 10/21).
- Paved the way for the Redskins to produce their third-highest all-time rushing total in a single game (296 yards on 48 carries) in club history at the New York Jets (11/4).

2006 (REDSKINS)

- Started at center in his 60th career game at Dallas (9/17).
- Instrumental part of an offensive line that totaled 495 yards of offense at Houston (11/24).
- Also helped protect quarterback Mark Brunell, who set an NFL record for consecutive completions in a single game (22) at Houston (11/24).

2005 (REDSKINS)

- Started all 16 games at center in 2005.
- Part of an offensive line that helped Clinton Portis rush for a club-record 1,516 yards.
- Helped Portis tie a club record with five consecutive 100-yard rush games at St. Louis (12/4), at Arizona (12/11), vs. Dallas (12/18), vs. New York Giants (12/24) and at Philadelphia (1/1).

Redskins Firsts

■ The Washington Redskins became the first and only team in NFL history to win a World Championship in their first year by defeating the Chicago Bears 28-21 to claim the 1937 title. On February 13, 1937, the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C. The Redskins, in their first season in Washington, compiled an 8-3 record on the road to the NFL title.

■ On September 16, 1937, the Redskins played their first game in D.C. Washington was victorious over the New York Giants at Griffith Stadium, 13-3.

■ On August 9, 1938, the Washington Redskins formed the NFL's first marching band. Later, on August 17, 1938, "Hail to the Redskins" made its debut as the first fight song by any team in the NFL.

■ In 1938, the Redskins became the first team in the NFL to have its own radio network carry all its games.

■ In 1950, the Washington Redskins became the first team in the NFL to have all its games televised locally. On September 26, 1954, the Redskins became the first team in the NFL to have its game televised regionally, when their contest at San Francisco was televised back to Washington and throughout the South.

■ The first regular season game at D.C. Stadium (re-named RFK Stadium in 1968) was played on October 1, 1961.

■ It didn't come easy, but on December 17, 1961 the Redskins finally got their first D.C. Stadium win in the '61 season finale with Dallas. Dickie James scored four touchdowns, a Redskins single-game record (Larry Brown tied it in 1973), to lead the Redskins to a 34-24 victory. The win ended a 23-game winless streak for the Redskins dating back to the 1960 season.

■ The Washington Redskins became the first and only team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls (XVII, XXII, XXVI) with three different quarterbacks (Joe Theismann, Doug Williams, Mark Rypien).

■ On September 14, 1997, the Redskins opened their new stadium, now called FedExField, with a thrilling 19-13 overtime victory against the Arizona Cardinals in front of a record crowd of Washington fans.

Postseason Records

The Washington Redskins have played in 40 postseason games in their history, earning a 23-17 record in those contests. Along with Dallas, Pittsburgh and San Francisco, Washington ranks fourth among NFL teams for most Championship titles in the history of pro football. They have reached the NFL's championship game 11 times, winning two World Championships and three Super Bowls.

The Redskins' first Super Bowl win came in Super Bowl XVII against Miami (following the 1982 season), the second in Super Bowl XII against Denver (following the 1987 season) and the third in Super Bowl XXVI against Buffalo (following the 1991 season). All three Super Bowl wins came under Joe Gibbs.

REDSKINS MILESTONES

'Redskin' Through the Years…

Red Cloud. Red Thunder. Red Eagle. Redlands. Red mud.

"The term redskin, applied by Europeans to Algonquians in general and the Delawares in particular," says the Reader's Digest in its book America's Fascinating Indian Heritage, "was inspired not by their natural complexion but by their fondness for vermilion makeup, concocted from fat mixed with berry juice and minerals that provided the desired color." The men "would streak their faces and bodies with bright red ocher and bloodroot," adds the Reader's Digest.

Indians painted their skin for decorative and ceremonial purposes. "Red is generally accepted as being one of the colors most easily available to and most used by Indians," as Ronald P. Koch states in his book Dress Clothing of the Plains Indians.

The Start
July 9, 1932
George P. Marshall headed syndicate (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought NFL franchise for Boston, MA. They contracted to play in Braves-Field, home of National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name
The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise
Feb. 13, 1937
The Washington Redskins were officially born! The National Football League approved transfer of Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, DC, and a new history began.

The Band
Aug. 9, 1937
The famed Redskins Band founded. First of its kind.

First Victory
Sept. 16, 1937
The First Game! Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scores on 60-yard run with interception, two field goals and an extra point. Redskins 13, Giants 3.

First Title
Dec. 5, 1937
Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind brass band. Sammy Baugh completed 11 of 15, Cliff Battles ran 75 and 76 yards for TDs, Giants routed 49-14, for Eastern Championship.

World Champs!
Dec. 12, 1937
Freezing weather, frozen field, icy-nerved Bears can't stop Baugh. He completed 17 of 33 for 335 yards and 3 TDs. Wayne Millner, the all-time Notre Dame great, escapes with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77 and 55-yd.TD spring.

Westward Ho!
Aug. 2, 1939
Redskins set forth on first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Washington.

Zero Hour
Oct. 1, 1939
Only scoreless tie in Redskin history as Giants were battled in mud and rain.

Record Pass
Oct. 15, 1939
From kick formation, standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. Longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East. Champs
Dec. 1, 1940
Miniature-sized Davy O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but Redskins won 13-6 to clinch Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhh!
Dec. 8, 1940
Redskins got more first downs than Bears in World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, but lost 73-0.

California
Aug. 18, 1941
Redskins brought pro football on large scale for first time to California. Established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes
Nov. 23, 1941
Fifty seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game, Redskins held a 13-10 lead. But Giants got a field goal and touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss
Sept. 27, 1942
Giants don't make first down, gained only ONE yard rushing, completed just ONE pass...but it's good for a TD; then they captured another TD on interception...and Redskins suffered their only 1942 defeat,14-7.

World Champs!
Dec. 13, 1942
Bears took early lead on errant pass from center. But Sam Baugh's 85-yd. quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for 38-yd TD. Andy Farkas capped victory by carrying ball 10 of 12 times on 80-yd TD tour. Score: 14-6.

Division Title
Dec. 13, 1942
After two straight losses, Redskins bounced back in Eastern title playoff to trash Giants 28-0.

Runner Up
Dec. 26, 1943
Sam Baugh suffered concussion early tackling Sid Luckman on punt return and Bears went on to win NFL title 41-21.

To a T
July 30, 1945
Redskins abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East. Champs
Dec. 9, 1945
Second straight shutout (Steelers 24-0 Dec. 2) vs. Giants 17-0, won Eastern title.

One Point Shy
Dec. 16, 1945
In subzero weather, Redskins lost world title to Rams, 15-14, on incredibly freakish plays. Baugh's pass from end zone hit goal-post for safety (no longer allowed); and Waterfield's try-for-point hits crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game
Sept. 6, 1946
First Annual Redskins-Rams game for benefit in Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

A New Beginning
Sept. 12, 1982
With the 0-5 start of a year ago, the 0-4 preseason fresh on everyone's mind, Mark Moseley lifted the burden with 26-yard overtime field goal to give the Redskins a victory over Philadelphia. Moseley had only minutes earlier sent the game into overtime with a 48-yarder.

Strike!
Sept. 21, 1982
The NFL players walked out in a strike that would last until Nov. 17. In all, eight games were missed, seven cancelled.

Holy Moseley!
Dec. 19, 1982
With time running out, the game on the line, with an NFL record at stake, Mark Moseley beat the Giants by booting his 21st straight field goal in a snowy RFK Stadium. The kick broke Garo Yepremian's record of 20 and gave the Redskins a 15-14 win. Also in the game, John Riggins became only the fifth back in NFL history to exceed 2,000 carries (Payton, Simpson, Brown, and Harris are the others).

A Whitewash
Jan. 2, 1983
For the first time since 1980, the Redskins post a shutout by beating the Cardinals 28-0. Their 8-1 record was the best in the NFC, giving them home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. The 128 points given up by the Redskins defense is the fewest in the NFL.

Hogs Take Their Bows
Jan. 15, 1982
The celebrated Hogs created enough holes in the Viking defense for John Riggins to plow for a Redskin playoff record of 185 yards, leading Washington to a 21-7 win and a spot in the NFC Championship. Before leaving the game, Riggins gallantly bowed to the 54,000-plus Redskins faithful who roar in approval.

Sweet revenge
Jan. 22, 1983
The Redskins avenged their only loss of the season, setting back the Cowboys, 31-17, to reach their second Super Bowl, and first in ten years.

Super Bowl Win!
Jan. 30, 1983
The Redskins won Super Bowl XVII downing the Dolphins 27-17. Their win streak reached eight, and 15 of 16 and 20 of 24 over two seasons. Jack Kent Cooke accepted the Super Bowl Trophy from Pete Rozelle in the locker room as MVP Riggins boasts, "Ron may be President, but for tonight I'm King." The Redskins' 12-1 record was the fifth best NFL mark in the last 50 years, and their best ever.

Hails from the Chief
Jan. 31, 1983
President and Mrs. Reagan were at Dulles Airport to greet the World Champion Redskins as they arrived back from California.

Parade of Stars
Feb. 3, 1983

Doomsday Showdown in Dallas
Dec. 11, 1983
Dressed in army fatigues, the Redskins marched into Dallas to do battle. The result was a convincing 31-10 victory and sole possession of first place in the NFC East. It was a game that saw Tony Dorsett held to 34 yards on 14 carries (one yard of five carries in the second half) and scores from four different Redskins.

Alone on a Hill
Dec. 17, 1983
For the second year in a row the Redskins finished with the best record in the NFL. Their 31-22 victory over the Giants capped a remarkable 14-2 regular season. It was the first time in the history of the League that an NFC team compiled so many victories.

One-Two Punch
1983
Mark Moseley's NFL kick scoring record of 161 points, and Riggins' total of 144 points, topped the entire NFL. It was the first time since 1951 that the number one and two scorers played on the same team. Their total of 305 points surpassed the totals of eight other clubs.

Ring Out the Rams
Jan. 1, 1984
The Redskins rang in the New Year by drubbing the L.A. Rams 51-7 in the most lopsided playoff in 26 years. Team set or tied 13 club playoff marks with the 44-point margin of victory, the greatest in the 47-year history of the Redskins.

Three of a Kind
1985
The 10 victories marked a third consecutive season the Redskins won 10 or more games, equaling a club-best streak set from 1972-74. The 35 wins in those three seasons were a club record for the successes for a three-year period. Threes were also meaningful for offensive linemen Joe Jacoby and Russ Grimm, who each earned a third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. Receiver Art Monk (91 catches) was sent for second straight time.

Happy Birthday
Feb. 13, 1986
The Washington Redskins entered their 50th season in the Nation's Capital, celebrating the franchise's move from Boston to Washington.

Rally Ho

Relief Pitcher
Dec. 26, 1987
Quarterback Doug Williams connected on 11-of-22 for 217 yards and two TDs in Minnesota. The 27-24 overtime victory is highlighted by a Ricky Sanders 51-yard catch-and-run to force sudden death. Haji-Sheikh kicks the game winner.

The Bear Facts
Jan. 10, 1988
For the second time in two years, 'Skins traveled to Chicago for Divisional Playoff. After trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, team rallied to win 21-17. Darrell Green provided the game-winning points on an electrifying 52-yard punt return, as Redskins advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the fourth time in six seasons.

NFC Champs!
Jan. 17, 1988
Redskins are 17-10 victors over the Minnesota Vikings as Doug Williams connected with Gary Clark to break a 10-10 fourth quarter deadlock. Washington became the first team to advance to the Super Bowl three times in the 1980s.

World Champs!
Jan. 31, 1988
Twenty Super Bowl records were broken en route to 42-10 decision over the Denver Broncos. Quarterback Doug Williams is named the game's MVP as he connected on 18-of-29 for a record 340 yards. His four touchdown passes tie another record as team scores five times in five possessions in the second quarter alone.

100 Wins

Naming 70 Greats
June 13, 2002
The 70 Greatest Redskins in team history were announced in June by a blue-ribbon panel, selected to choose the Washington Redskins' leading on-field contributors in celebration of the franchise's 70th Anniversary. Spanning the entire history of the team, since it's founding in Boston in 1932, the 70 Greatest Redskins encompassed three head coaches and 67 players.

70th Anniversary Weekend
Oct. 2002
The 70 Greatest Redskins were honored in a weekend of festivities, culminating in a special half-time ceremony during the 25-27, Redskins victory over the Indianapolis Colts. The celebration reunited the 70 Greats with a black-tie gala event, an alumni and media brunch, dinner party and pre-game barbeque at FedEx Field. The anniversary season was also commemorated through "retro" uniforms worn at home games all year, featuring a one-season return to the team's spear-and-feather helmet logo, as well as jersey and pants colors and design that reflected back to the 1960s midpoint of the Redskins storied history.

Green's Last Game

Overtime Games

In 1974, the NFL established overtime to decide regular season games. Since then, the Redskins have compiled an 19-11-1 record in overtime games.

November 2, 1975 - RFK Stadium
Washington 30, Dallas 24
Ken Houston returned a Roger Staubach interception 14 yards, and Billy Kilmer scored the winning touchdown after 6:34 of overtime action.

November 16, 1975 - Busch Stadium
St. Louis 20, Washington 17
Cards scored with 20 seconds remaining on "Mel Gray catch" to force overtime. St. Louis won cointoss and marched to 37-yard Jim Bakken field goal to win after seven minutes of play.

November 23, 1975 - RFK Stadium
Oakland 26, Washington 23
George Blanda's 27-yard field goal decided contest after 7:13.

September 27, 1976 - Veterans Stadium
Washington 20, Philadelphia 17
Mark Moseley's 29-yard field goal won the Monday night game with 12:49 elapsed in overtime.

November 12, 1978 - RFK Stadium
Washington 16, New York Giants 13
Redskins won on Moseley's 45-yard field goal after 3:32 elapsed.

November 15, 1981 - Giants Stadium
Washington 30, New York Giants 27
Moseley kicked a 49-yard field goal on game's final play to force overtime and a 48-yard field goal to win with 3:44 elapsed.

September 12, 1982 - Veterans Stadium
Washington 37, Philadelphia 34
Redskins sent the game into overtime on a 48-yard field goal by Moseley with :01 to play. Moseley won the game with a 26-yarder with 4:47 elapsed.

November 2, 1986 - RFK Stadium
Washington 44, Minnesota 38
Jay Schroeder engineered a four play 63-yard drive ending with a Gary Clark 38-yard TD pass.

December 26, 1987 - Metrodome
Washington 27, Minnesota 24
Ricky Sanders' 51-yard touchdown reception from Doug Williams with less than two minutes remaining tied score at 24. Haji-Sheikh kicks 26-yard game-winning field goal after Sanders' 36-yard kickoff return in overtime.

December 17, 1988 - Riverfront Stadium
Cincinnati 20, Washington 17
Jim Breech connected from 20 yards out seven minutes into sudden death.

November 4, 1990 - Pontiac Silverdome
Washington 41, Detroit 38
Chip Lohmiller's 34-yard field goal 9:10 into overtime capped the Redskins comeback that equalled the team's greatest in history. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge's 12-yard run tied the game with :18 seconds remaining.

November 3, 1991 - RFK Stadium
Washington 16, Houston 13
Darrell Green intercepted a Warren Moon pass which set-up Lohmiller's 41-yard field goal 5:01 into overtime moving the Redskins to a 9-0 record. The Oilers tied the game with less than two minutes in regulation and had a chance towin after Brian Mitchell fumbled the kickoff, but Ian Howfield's 33-yard attempt sailed wide left.

October 16, 1994 - RFK Stadium
Arizona 19, Washington 16
Arizona scored the tying TD with :19 in regulation and scored the winning points with 4:56 in overtime. Arizona's game-winner was set up by Terry Hoage who intercpeted a Heath Shuler pass and returned it 12 yards to the 23. Peterson kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal.

October 8, 1995 - Veterans Stadium
Philadelphia 37, Washington 34

Down 10 points in the 4th quarter, Gus Frerotte guided the Redskins back with a touchdown pass to Henry Ellard and Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal tied it up with :52 left. In OT, Washington stalled on its opening drive and the Eagles' Gary Anderson won the game with a 35-yard field goal.

October 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium
Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

November 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium
Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Redskin history, the Skins led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss, and drove to the Redskins 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. The Skins' Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then tried a 29-yarder that missed, only the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32-yards.

November 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium
San Francisco 19, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

September 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium
Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins win with 13:24 left in OT when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, throws a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Kenard Lang forces a fumble and rookie linebacker recovers on the Redskins 35-yard line.

November 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium
Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime the Redskins turn the ball over three times, but the defense forces two punts and the Giants miss a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, the Redskins drive to the Giants 36-yard line but a 54-yard field goal attempt falls short with :11 seconds left in overtime.

September 12, 1999 - FedExField
Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the Skins' first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

November 28, 1999 - FedExField
Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kickoff return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

December 26, 1999 - 3Com Park
Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Redskins overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

October 1, 2000 - FedExField
Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

October 21, 2001 - FedExField
Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal the Redskins' first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. The Redskins set up the win in the fourth quarter as they ignited on both sides of the ball to overcome a 14-point deficit.

September 21, 2003 - FedExField
New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

October 2, 2005 - FedExField
Washington 20, Seattle 17

Having a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, the Redskins went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

November 27, 2005 - FedExField
San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17 apiece. With 0:35 remaining, the Redskins had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

October 1, 2006 - FedExField
Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with :06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80-yards on three play for the game winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss for a 68-yard touchdown pass which sealed the win.

December 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome
St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and sending it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and six minutes into the extra time running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21-yards for the game winning touchdown.

September 9, 2007 - FedExField
Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, the Redskins won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as the Redskins got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

November 4, 2007 - Meadowlands
Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

SIDELINES

Bruce Smith Earns Induction Into Pro Football Hall of Fame

Former Redskins defensive end Bruce Smith was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, January 31, 2008.

Smith played with the Bills from 1985-99 and the Redskins from 2000-03. Overall, Smith played 19 seasons in the NFL and finished his career as the league's all-time sack leader with 200.

"We were fortunate to have Bruce as a Redskin for his final four playing years, and as a Redskin when he set the all-time sack record," Redskins owner Daniel M. Snyder said. "He's a consummate professional in life, as he was in the locker room and on the field. He's a personal friend, and the epitome of a Hall of Famer. He still joins us at games, and Redskins fans will always feel part of his stellar career."

He made two all-decade teams (1980s and 1990s) after being drafted No. 1 overall in 1985. He owns NFL records for most seasons with double-digit sacks (13) and most postseason sacks (14.5).

Smith recorded 29 sacks in four seasons with the Redskins, including 10 in 2000 and nine in 2002.

He set the league's sack record on December 7, 2003 as a member of the Redskins, breaking the previous mark of 198 held by Reggie White.

The Redskins honored Smith on December 28, 2003, the day of his last professional game. The late former U.S. Rep. Jack Kemp, a congressman from Western New York who shared with Smith connections to both Buffalo and Washington, D.C., presented Smith with a plaque that listed his many accomplishments.

Later, Smith addressed the fans in attendance at the game.

"It has certainly been a blessed career," Smith said. "They say time flies when you're having fun. I can attest to that. It has been a magnificent ride.

"People that I have known over the years have, for the most part, turned into my extended family. I've had a lot of ups and downs — but it's something I wouldn't trade for anything."

Smith joined the Redskins in 2000 after 15 seasons as a premiere pass rusher with the Bills. He remains proud of the 1990-93 Bills teams that made it to four consecutive Super Bowls.

"There are so many more bright spots," he said. "We as individuals tend to focus on the negatives so much that we forget about the blessings we've all had. All of my teammates through the years have enriched my life in one aspect or another.

"With adversity, if you're smart and wise, you'll profit from it. It'll build character."

Smith grew up in Norfolk, Virginia, and attended Virginia Tech.

Smith will be inducted into the Hall of Fame on August 8, 2009 with wide receiver Bob Hayes, offensive lineman Randall McDaniel, linebacker Derrick Thomas, defensive back Rod Woodson and owner Ralph Wilson, Jr.

Sean Taylor Enters Redskins Ring of Fame

Sean Taylor took his place among Washington Redskins greats when he was inducted into the franchise's Ring of Fame in an emotional pre-game ceremony prior to the team's contest against the New York Giants on November 30, 2008.

"21" was everywhere at FedExField, a reminder of the unlimited potential of Sean Taylor.

Taylor's family, father Pete, mother Donna Junor, fiancé Jackie Garcia and daughter Jackie, were on hand and received commemorative plaques honoring the late Redskins safety.

After a video tribute of Sean Taylor highlights, Pete Taylor spoke to the fans, many of them wearing No. 21 jerseys.

Taylor thanked Redskins owner Daniel M. Snyder, Taylor's teammates and the many fans "who blessed us during this trying time."

"We all understand playing in the NFL is a privilege," Pete said. "Sean had the opportunity to play here. One thing we talked about when he came here was the 12th man, the fans of the Redskins.

"He stated that when you [fans] made this stadium rock, Sean rocked. Right now, Sean is rocking in heaven."

Redskins players, wearing a "21" patch on the upper right side of their jerseys, had asked to be on the field for the unveiling of Sean Taylor's name into the Ring of Fame. They ran to midfield as a group, where "21" had replaced the Redskins logo. Then they gathered around Taylor's family.

Fireworks went off as the covering was lifted off Sean Taylor's name on the Ring of Fame, high above the south end zone at FedExField. The Redskins and their fans applauded their fallen teammate one more time. Giants players stood along the sidelines and applauded as well.

And then the public address announcer: "Ladies and gentlemen, starting at free safety for your Washington Redskins, Sean Taylor." Clinton Portis, one of Taylor's closest friends on the team, raced out of the tunnel holding a "21" flag, to the roar of the fans. Portis raced over and greeted the Taylor family.

"The opportunity for me to run out with the flag during Sean's introduction—it was great," Portis said after the game "You always see '21' jerseys in this stadium. Fans always represent for Sean, and teammates and players, they represent also."

Added Portis: "I noticed the 21 painted on the field during the game. I think this is a classy organization. That's the way you're supposed to pay tribute to a fallen soldier."

Jason Campbell called it a tremendous moment for Taylor's family, but admitted it was 'tough to watch."

"We just wanted to show support and comfort, because it's still a difficult situation not having Sean anymore," he said.

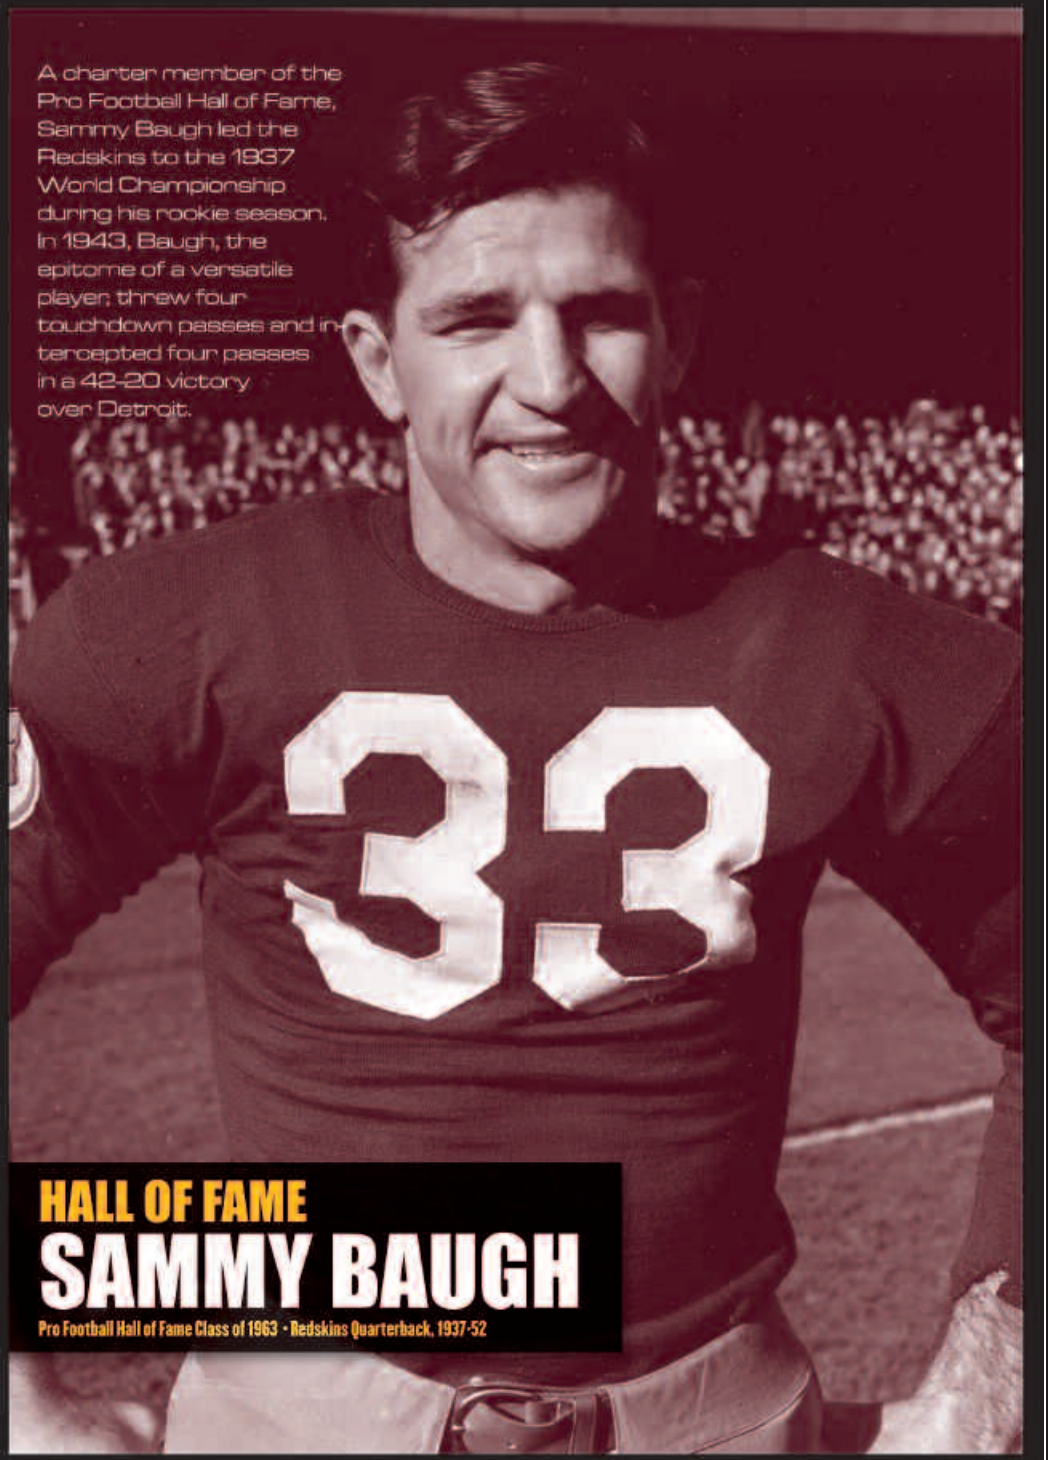
Taylor became the 43rd member of the Redskins Ring of Fame at FedExField.

With his combination of size, speed, athleticism, ferocity and instincts, Taylor was one of the most unique and dynamic athletes the game has ever seen, despite playing less than four seasons.

He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection after the Redskins made him the fifth pick of the 2004 NFL draft following an All-American career at the University of Miami.

"It's appropriate that Sean joins our Ring of Fame after a stellar career cut short far too soon," Redskins owner Daniel M. Snyder said before the game. "His life touched so many of us in such deep and lasting ways. His presence is all around us, in our organization and among our fans."

Executive Vice President of Football Operations Vinny Cerrato added: "Sean was developing into one of the best to ever play the safety position, as well as becoming a role model to those who knew him. He still touches us every day in some way on and off the field."



A charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Sammy Baugh led the Redskins to the 1937 World Championship during his rookie season. In 1943, Baugh, the epitome of a versatile player, threw four touchdown passes and intercepted four passes in a 42-20 victory over Detroit.

A TRIBUTE TO SLINGIN' SAMMY

Redskins Legend Sammy Baugh, 1914-2008

Sammy Baugh, considered one of the greatest Redskins of all time, passed away on Dec. 17, 2008. He was 94.

Baugh grew up in Sweetwater, Texas, and starred at Texas Christian University from 1934-36, leading the Horned Frogs to a national championship.

He joined the Redskins as a first-round draft pick in 1937 and found instant success, guiding the franchise to an NFL championship in his first year in Washington. He led the Redskins to their second NFL championship in 1942.

Baugh was a three-way player, serving as a quarterback, defensive back and punter. Known as "Slingin' Sammy," he was the first NFL quarterback to make the forward pass a key component of his game.

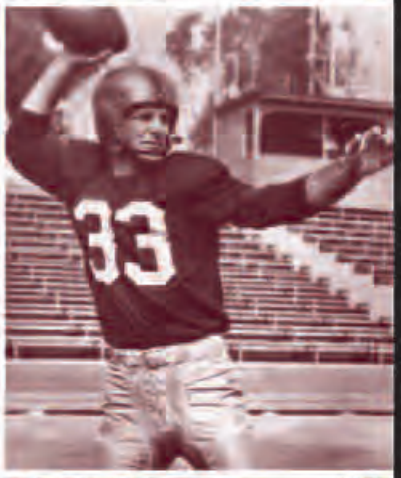
Baugh played in 165 games and completed 1,693-of-2,995 passes for 21,886 yards and 187 touchdowns.

As a defensive back, Baugh recorded 31 career interceptions. As a punter, he had a 45.1-yard career punting average.

Baugh would go on to set numerous NFL and Redskins passing records.

A colorful character to boot, Baugh attained celebrity status in Washington, D.C., and in the NFL during his playing days.

Simply put, they just don't make them like Sammy Baugh anymore.



SAMMY BAUGH AT A GLANCE

- Baugh was a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, inducted in 1963.
- Baugh was the first quarterback in history to lead his college team (Texas Christian University) to a national championship and his pro team (the Redskins) to an NFL championship. (Joe Namath and Joe Montana also accomplished the feat.)
- Baugh led the NFL in passing six times, a mark tied for most ever with Steve Young.
- Baugh owns the NFL record of most seasons leading the league in lowest interception percentage, a feat he accomplished five times.
- In 1943, Baugh led the NFL in passing (133-of-239 for 1,754 yards), punting (45.9-yard average) and interceptions (11).
- Baugh's 51.4-yard punting average in 1940 remains an NFL record.
- Baugh has the NFL's second-highest career punting average with 45.1 yards per punt.
- As a defensive back, Baugh set an NFL record with four interceptions in a game against Detroit on Nov. 14, 1943. The mark is tied with 18 other players.
- Baugh owns the Redskins franchise record for most passing yards in a game with 446 in a 48-10 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers.
- On "Sammy Baugh Day" at Griffith Stadium on Nov. 23, 1947, Redskins fans gave Baugh a maroon station wagon. Baugh responded by throwing six touchdown passes in leading the Redskins to a 45-21 rout of the Chicago Cardinals. The six TDs remain a Redskins franchise record.

Welcome to FedExField®

FedExField is the premier stadium in the National Football League. Located in Landover, Md., the privately financed FedExField was completed in a record 17 moths and hosted the Redskins home opener September 14, 1997 – a 19-13 overtime win against the Arizona Cardinals.

The stadium is located on a 200-acre site and is the largest in the NFL with 91,704 seats. FedExField is one of just two stadiums with three tiers of luxury suites, a total of 243. Suites are equipped with restrooms, a refrigerator, televisions, a lounge area, two rows of seats, and bar stools.

FedExField increased the Redskins attendance capacity by more than 40 percent when the team left RFK stadium after 1996. Nevertheless, the Redskins have sold out every home game for the past 43 seasons (327 regular-season and 13 playoff games) including all 119 (preseason, regular and postseason) contests at FedExField.

Construction on FedExField began in March 1996 and cost $250 million. The following year, $30 million was spent to create a 170,000 square-foot atrium encircling the entire stadium making the Joe Gibbs Club Level the most spectacular in the league. When Daniel M. Snyder became the Redskins owner in July 1999, one of his first tasks was to make additional improvements to FedExField. Immediately, millions were invested in such projects as replacing metal rails with glass rails in order to provide unobstructed sight lines in the stadium bowl. The sound system was significantly upgraded and the parking lot was re-structured and re-routed to greatly improve the traffic flow on game days.

Since his inaugural season, Snyder has spent more than $100 million to enhance FedExField. Over the past five seasons, numerous additions have been made. Escalators have been added for fans seated in the stadium's upper tier. The spectacular new Owner's Club Suite Level has been created. A 3,000-foot circumference wind screen has been installed around the top of the stadium to improve fan comfort. A sophisticated radiant heating system has been installed on the loge level. Seats have been added to the upper, lower and loge levels. The Field Club section of seating was added immediately around the playing field, dubbed the "dream seats," given they put fans almost on top of the action. The Hall of Fame Store, the original Official Redskins Store, has been remodeled and completely re-merchandised with new Redskins products. Finally, the field has been improved and re-sodded.

During the off-seasons and while the Redskins are away during the football season,

FedExField hosts a variety of special events. During the summer of 2009 FedExField hosted a performance by Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Paul McCartney, the U2 "360°" concert and an international friendly between Real Madrid and D.C. United. For more information regarding FedExField events, check out Redskins.com.

A Day of Firsts:

FedExField

September 14, 1997

On September 14, 1997, the Redskins opened their new stadium with a thrilling 19-13 overtime victory over the Arizona Cardinals in front of a record crowd of Washington fans.

In their first game at their new home, the Redskins were forced into overtime when Cardinals kicker Kevin Butler connected on a 47-yard field goal to tie the score with just two seconds remaining.

The Cards won the toss to start the extra period, but rookie defensive lineman Kenard Lang stripped Arizona running back Leeland McElroy of the football, and Derek M. Smith recovered for the Skins on the 35-yard line.

Quarterback Gus Frerotte was sacked on first down, but on the next play he found Michael Westbrook in the endzone for a game-winning 40-yard TD.

Welcome to Redskins Park

Rising from a former dairy farm and set on a picturesque 162 acres of land in Ashburn, Virginia, Redskins Park is home to the Gerald S. Snyder Training Facility, the team's year-round headquarters.

The team has called Redskins Park its home since August of 1992, enjoying a private haven away from urban distractions. The complex features four football fields, strength training and sports medicine facilities, offices and meeting rooms for players, coaches and front office staff, and accommodations for print and broadcast media. The building amasses some 65,000 square feet.

Located in Loudoun County, one of the fastest growing areas in the United States, Redskins Park is tucked away from highways and other office buildings. The two-story concrete and glass structure looks deceiving in size. Visitors enter a bright, spacious lobby that leads to three carefully groomed natural grass playing fields and an additional artificial turf practice surface.

The lower level of the building is dedicated to football operations, including player and staff locker rooms, a newly enhanced strength and conditioning center, the equipment room, athletic training rooms and video studio. The athletic training facilities include an x-ray room and dentist office, in addition to private examining rooms for the medical staff that cares for the team throughout the year. The lower level consists of a racquetball court and a half-court basketball gym. A catering kitchen is located adjacent to the gym, used as a dining hall during practice sessions throughout the year. A state-of-the art players' lounge was added in 2004.

One side of the upper floor consists of coaches' and personnel offices and a large, 105-seat multipurpose auditorium, used for team meetings, press conferences and video sessions. The other side of the building houses offices for the club's accounting, marketing, public relations and administrative offices. The public area of the building consists of large hallways, high ceilings with natural lighting and numerous trophy cases displaying the team's rich history and tradition.

The Sprint studio was completed in the rear of the building in 2005. The glassed studio overlooks the facility's four practice fields.

In 2005, an additional building adjacent to the main facility was constructed housing the Redskins Charitable Foundation, information technology and retail departments, as well as the Media Workroom. The newly-constructed Media Workroom includes 25 work stations, wireless and wired internet, high-definition flat screen televisions, men's and women's restrooms, and a kitchen featuring a full-size refrigerator/freezer, soda machine, microwave, water cooler, coffee maker and storage cabinets.

Washington Redskins Training Camp

Presented by RE/MAX

The Washington Redskins and Head Coach Jim Zorn will hold their 2009 Training Camp presented by RE/MAX beginning on July 30th at Redskins Park. This will mark the eighth year the Redskins will prepare for the upcoming NFL season at their year-round facility.

Training camp is an annual ritual in the NFL, an opportunity for fans from all over the country to come see their favorite Redskins players in action on the practice field, and get a first glimpse of the newly signed free agents and draft picks.

Eight scheduled practices are open to fans, free of charge, including Fan Appreciation Day on August 8. Visitors are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets, as they will be able to sit along the hill overlooking the four playing fields. After each practice, fans will have the opportunity to gather autographs and take photos of their favorite players as they walk off the field to the locker rooms.

Extensive media attention is expected, and to assist visiting press in their coverage, the Redskins provide a media tent and workroom equipped with power inputs and phone lines for data transmission. Credentialed media will have additional access to the players and practice areas, and can coordinate interviews through the Redskins Public Relations Department. All media attending Redskins Training Camp must obtain credentials to gain access to the grounds. Media should fax requests on company letterhead to the attention of Redskins Public Relations at 703-726-7086, before arriving to their first practice at Redskins Park.

The Redskins first held training camp at Redskins Park in 2000, opening the complex to visitors for the first time in franchise history. Thousands of fans from all over the Washington, D.C. area, and beyond, were able to watch their favorite players just steps from the practice fields, gather autographs and take part in the Redskins experience. After a two-year hiatus, with camp being held at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, the Redskins returned to Ashburn to get ready for the 2003 season, and have remained there since.

For a detailed training camp practice schedule please visit Redskins.com for more information, including updated team news, practice times and training camp directions. Ample parking will be available to all fans visiting Redskins Park at no cost.

Washington Redskins
Stats Crew

An integral part of every Redskins game at FedExField is the dedicated staff of statisticians and assistants that monitor every snap, tackle, run, pass and catch that takes place on the playing field.

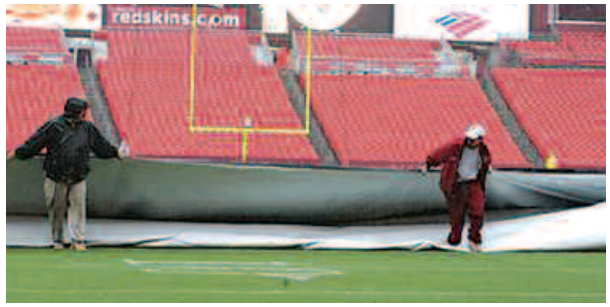
The Redskins stats crew is responsible for generating official game stats, compiling and inputting play-by-play information into a computer database that quickly makes the data available for use by team coaches, the NFL and the media.

Jon Stratton enters his 23rd season directing the statistician crew, while Bill Harris begins his 14th season as head of the crews' computer operations. Regarded as one of the top stats crews in the NFL, Stratton and his staff have more than 100 years of combined experience.

Washington Redskins
Grounds Crew

The playing surface at FedExField is among the very best in the NFL.

The Redskins Grounds Crew is responsible for ensuring that the playing fields at FedExField and Redskins Park are in smooth, safe condition and able to withstand the rigors of NFL football. They work year-round operating the high-tech irrigation system under FedExField, fertilizing, mowing and chalking the field to keep it in top playing condition.



During the off-season in 2007, the Redskins grounds crew re-sodded the fields at Redskins Park, preparing for the start of the new football year. The Grounds Crew plays an important role in Redskins community initiatives as well, helping the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation renovate the football fields of local high schools throughout the region. The program has been so successful that the NFL is encouraging similar programs in other NFL markets.

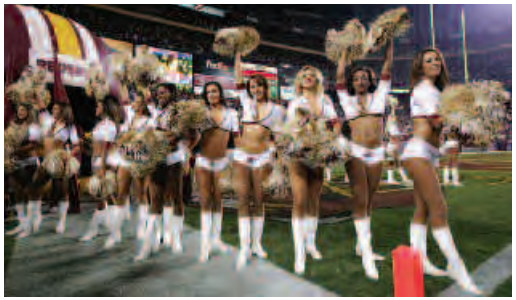
First Ladies of Football

Each year, hundreds of talented young women audition for the chance to cheer on the Washington Redskins players and entertain fans along the sidelines of FedExField. Since their inception in 1962, the First Ladies of Football have brought Redskins fans to their feet, both on and off the field.

While the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders are most visible to Redskins fans during the games at FedExField, they also find themselves working weekends and holidays year-round to assist charity and volunteer organizations, fundraisers, and educational foundations. Each year, working with the Department of Defense and Armed Forces Entertainment, members of the Washington squad travel to military bases around the world. As a part of Operation Iraqi Freedom they have visited service men and women in Iraq and Italy. The cheerleaders have also traveled to New York for Fleet Week.

Over the last nine years performing for U.S. troops, the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders Variety Show has grown from a small holiday performance to a musical extravaganza that incorporates the latest in funk, rock-n-roll, swing, and jazz, as well as contemporary and country music, with some audience participation thrown in to ensure the show has something for everyone.

Most recently the Cheerleaders traveled to Hong Kong in January 2009 to perform in the Chinese New Year's Parade. The Cheerleaders were featured in the Chinese New Year Festivities and Performances for the week as well as in the actual parade for TV. In April 2008 they traveled all across India as the first cheerleaders for the Premier Cricket League. Featured as the "first ladies" of the Royal Challengers, Bangalore, they created quite a media-hype and excitement while there.



Washington Redskins Alumni

The Washington Redskins Alumni Association formed in 1958, the first such alumni group in the country. The organization spearheaded the alumni movement among former professional football players and was the model for other alumni groups that later formed in all NFL cities.

Today, Redskins alumni continue to make their presence known throughout the community. As a very active chapter of the NFL Alumni Association, their motto is "Caring for Kids." In addition to the numerous events and appearances, Redskins alumni participate in throughout the year, they hold two major fundraising events of their own: the Redskins Alumni Charity Golf Classic, now in its 30th year, and the annual Washington Redskins Welcome Home Luncheon, now in its 49th year. Mark Moseley currently resides as president of the Redskins Alumni Association.

The alumni have an office at Redskins Park and can be reached at 703-726-7488.

Washington Redskins Marching Band

The Redskins Marching Band begins its 72nd year leading sell-out crowds at FedExField in the team fight song, "Hail to the Redskins." With bandmaster Billy Ball directing, it is one of just two pro football marching bands still in existence today.

The all-volunteer ensemble formed in 1937, when George Preston Marshall brought the team to Washington, D.C., with the goal of entertaining fans from the moment they walked into the stadium until the time they left to go home.

For more than six decades, the Marching Band has taken great pleasure in entertaining fans with their pre-game and halftime shows.

Over the years, the Band has marched between train stations and stadiums before notable games, down Broadway before a New York Giants game in the early 1960s, and around the concourse of Tampa Stadium during Super Bowl XVIII.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS

THE REDSKINS FIGHT SONG

"Hail to the Redskins!
Hail Victory!
Braves on the warpath,
Fight for old D.C.!

Run or pass and score
we want a lot more!
Beat 'em Swamp 'em Touchdown
let the points soar!

Fight on, Fight on,
Til you have won,
Sons of Wash-ing-ton!"

On August 17, 1938, "Hail to the Redskins" made its debut as the official fight song of the Washington Redskins. The song was written by renowned band leader Barnee Breeskin and the lyrics were penned by Hollywood movie star Corinne Griffith, the wife of team founder and owner, George Preston Marshall. Copyright© by EMI Feist, Inc.

Meet the Hogettes

Another trademark of FedExField game day is a sighting of "The Hogettes," a highly spirited group of Redskins fans that dress in polka dot skirts, brightly colored wigs, plastic hog snouts, and enjoy extra-large cigars.

"The Hogettes" started appearing at Redskins games in 1983, named after Washington's popular offensive line from the 80's, "The Hogs".

The group can be found at FedExField for every home Redskins game, and sometimes in the stands on road trips.

The members are extremely active in the community as well, making appearances at golf tournaments, telethons, and parades to support children's charities.

"The Hogettes" received the ultimate die-hard fan honor in 1999, with an induction into the Pro Football Hall of fame, in the Hall of Fans exhibit in Canton, Ohio.

The Gameday Experience

As Redskins fans enter through the gates of FedExField, they are about to be part of the largest and best game day experience in all of the NFL. As they get to their seats and prepare for the game, a production team is also preparing behind the scenes for that game.

The Production Department's game day staff is comprised of 50 staff and technicians, who provide the fans all the Redskins coverage and entertainment features pre-, post- and during the game. All of this is seen on two endzone display boards that included two Sony Jumbotrons and two Daktronics displays, that combined measure over 26 feet x 157 feet per endzone display.

Mark Kessler, in his 10th season as gameday announcer at FedExField, provides the familiar voice in the stadium.

In addition to the display boards, the Production Department books all the National Anthem singers, Honor Guards, flyovers, and halftime acts for the entire season.

They also coordinate all of the gameday performances of the Washington Redskins Marching Band and the first Ladies of football, the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders.

Weisman published more than 5,000 stories and authored three books in his distinguished journalism career. He began covering pro football in 1978, including 29 Super Bowls. During his tenure at USA Today, Weisman has extensively covered all 32 NFL teams. His writing and reporting have earned him numerous awards and accolades.

Throughout his career, Weisman has made various television and radio appearances in ESPN, CNN, NFL Films, CBS News, Fox Sports and Comcast SportsNet. He also made a cameo appearance as a sports writer in Adam Sandler's box office hit remake of "The Longest Yard." Weisman has now turned his attention to contributing to the many Redskins television, radio, online and print properties.

In the Redskins Official Online Store, fans from near and far can shop for the latest team merchandise, from team jerseys and caps to Redskins card tables and chairs. The Online Store is equipped with the latest in internet shopping security, so buying online is safe and convenient.

Fans from all over the world can chat about the team on ExtremeSkins.com, a fan forum part of Redskins.com that includes the only fan-hosted team message board in the NFL. The site has hosted exclusive chats with Redskins coaches and players.

Redskins Broadcast Network

The Redskins Broadcast Network is the TV and Radio production department of the team. The content delivered by RBN includes preseason game broadcasts on NBC4 and Comcast SportsNet. In addition, RBN produces 5 original TV shows each season broadcast in the Washington, D.C. region; Inside the Redskins, a full hour of Redskins coverage from highlights, to player and coach interviews, cheerleaders and features. Redskins Late Night, a fun-filled show with skits, player interviews and Larry Landover!, The Jim Zorn Show, where the Redskins Head Coach breaks it down each week, Redskins Gameplan, with special day of the game coverage of the team, and Redskins Game Day, an in-depth look at the day's Redskins game complete with an X's and O's breakdown of the opponent.

RBN produces content for Redskins.comTV, which features exclusive interviews with coaches, players and team officials, the Redskins Cheerleaders at the annual swimsuit calendar shoots, and on-field action from the practice fields at Redskins Park to game day at FedExField. The site works under a theme of "Redskins Unfiltered," in an effort to provide Redskins fans with complete, unedited press conferences and immediate news and information.

The Executive Producer of RBN is Larry Michael, the Voice of the Washington Redskins. His staff includes RBN veterans Rebecca Mejia, Director of Production; Charlie Broyhill, Coordinating Producer; and Megan Imbert, Producer. Also, James Heuser, Producer; Jordan Beane, Technical Coordinator; and Ed Clark, Producer. From the sideline to the locker room, Redskins Broadcast Network goes where no other media outlet can go, for the real story on the Washington Redskins, 365 days a year!

MISSION STATEMENT

To utilize the assets of the Washington Redskins and its corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington D.C. region in the areas of education, community outreach and health and wellness.

EDUCATION

4TH & LIFE
This curriculum-based program for high school football players focuses on what it takes to be successful on the field, in the classroom, and in the workplace by using examples from Redskins players, coaches and alumni. Coca-Cola is the presenting sponsor.

REDSKINS READ
Encouraging and promoting literacy among youth is the mission of the Redskins Read literacy program. This is accomplished through the production and distribution of Redskins Read activity books throughout the area, along with player appearances. Verizon's Thinkfinity.org, Dairy Management, Inc., and GlaxoSmithKline are the program sponsors.

COACHES IN THE CLASSROOM
Coaches in the Classroom places Academic Coaches at area high schools throughout the region. The coaches help student-athletes create an academic game plan to prepare them for college.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

HARVEST FEAST
Annual Thanksgiving food distribution event at FedExField for Prince George's County, Maryland residents in need. The Redskins provide about 3,000 families with a complete food basket, including a whole turkey provided by Harris Teeter and a selection of packaged and fresh food provided by Operation Blessing.

RANDLE EL WARMS UP WASHINGTON'S YOUTH
With the help of Redskins wide receiver Antwaan Randle El and his teammates, children are given a holiday celebration along with a new winter coat.

SKINS SANTA SHOPPE
The Redskins locker room at FedExField is transformed into Santa's Workshop as underserved children visit to select a new toy, provided by Toys for Tots, with the help of Redskins players and their families.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

PLAY 60
To combat childhood obesity, we "Play 60," or encourage youth to get 60 minutes of physical activity each day. Redskins Youth Fitness Zones, 1st Down Fitness, What Moves U and other fitness and nutrition-focused youth programming has been implemented to accomplish this goal.

ATLAS AND ATHENA
Nationally-acclaimed programs for male and female student-athletes at area high schools focusing on healthy living and the elimination of drug use through peer mentoring.

FIELDS FOR TOMORROW
Fields for Tomorrow renovates, upgrades, and maintains football fields at high schools in need throughout Washington, D.C., and Prince George's County, Maryland.

REDSKINS YOUTH FITNESS ZONES
Youth fitness zones are interactive spaces that features the HOPSports Training Systems. HOPSports has workout equipment and lessons designed for children ages 6-14 to help put the excitement back into exercising. GlaxoSmithKline is a program sponsor.

SIGNATURE EVENTS/FUNDRAISERS

REDSKINS WELCOME HOME LUNCHEON
Luncheon to kick off the football season and celebrate the previous season's accomplishments. The entire Washington Redskins team is in attendance.

MICKEY STEELE CELEBRITY GOLF TOURNAMENT
Annual golf outing benefiting the Charitable Foundation and the Mark Rypien Foundation. Foursomes are paired with Redskins players or former players and the day includes auctions and a dinner provided by Morton's The Steakhouse.

REDSKINS SPORTING CLAYS CHALLENGE
This one-of-a-kind clay pigeon shooting challenge features current and former Redskins players placed with teams of four competitors. The day concludes with a Maryland-style seafood dinner.

LICENSE PLATES
Did you know that you can show your Redskins pride and support youth in our region just by purchasing a license plate? To download your Maryland or Virginia application, log onto www.Redskins.com and click on the Community link. A portion of the license plate fee is a tax-deductible gift to the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation's youth programs focusing on education, community outreach, and health and wellness.

REDSKINS REPLAY
The Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation receives thousands of requests for tickets to Redskins games from youth focused organizations, children battling life-threatening illnesses, non-profit groups focused on providing activities for youth who have family members that are deployed, and youth football organizations. Redskins Replay allows season ticket holders to make a tax-deductible donation of their tickets to the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation.

GAMEDAY

Credentials: Accredited members of the media who cover the Washington Redskins and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for gameday credentials. For security purposes, the Redskins do not send paper credentials out ahead of gameday. All media that have been confirmed by Redskins PR will be given their paper credentials in person, with valid photo ID, on gameday. Requests must be written on the news organization's letterhead and mailed to Zack Bolno at the above Redskin Park address. Requests can also be faxed to 703-726-7086, but should be followed with a phone call. All credentials can be picked up at Media Will Call and Bag Check, located in the South Field Tunnel, beneath Gate B. Please be advised that all media must provide photo ID, and all bags will be checked by FedExField security. Guests are not permitted in the FedExField Press Box and credentials are issued to working press only.

Media Entrance: All media must enter the stadium at the South Field Tunnel, beneath Gate B. The credential desk opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Photographers: A field credential along with a vest, which must be worn at all times while on the sideline, are issued by the Redskins PR department. All vests must be returned after the game. Freelance photographers who are not on specific assignment for a recognized sports or news publication will not be accredited. Credentials are marked to only allow photographers on the field. They will not give photographers access to the locker room.

Parking: Television trucks that provide satellite, uplink, or microwave functions will be parked in Lot B1. Media that wish to bring a truck to a Redskins game MUST contact Redskins PR by Tuesday preceding the game. Other media are welcome to park, free of charge, at the Media Parking Lot at Landover Mall. Regular shuttles provide transportation directly from Media Parking FedExField. Directions: (See page 400 for directions to FedExField. Contact Redskins PR for detailed directions to Landover Mall Parking.)

Telephones: The Redskins provide a limited number of co-op credit card phones for copy transmission. Any media who wish to order a dedicated phone line must contact Redskins PR ahead of game day.

Post-game interviews: Members of the media seeking to conduct post-game interviews will be given access to players and coaches after the NFL-mandated "cooling of period." Access is available only to media with proper credentials. No still photography is allowed in the locker room. Redskins Head Coach Jim Zorn and key players will conduct their post-game press conference in the press interview room located on the field level of FedExField. The visiting Head Coach will be available in the interview room located directly opposite the visiting locker room.

DURING THE WEEK

Release/Stats: All press releases, rosters, depth charts, and up-to-date statistics are quickly available on the Redskins official website at www.redskins.com. Head Coach Jim Zorn will hold a Monday press conference (Tuesday, after Monday night games) in the media room at Redskin Park at 12:25 p.m. The press conference video will be streamed live and archived on redskins.com. Check with Redskins PR for times.

Conference Calls: Head Coach Jim Zorn and a player will be made available to visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season. The Redskins will set up conference calls with the opposing team's coach and player for local media on the same day. Please check with Redskins PR for times.

Interviews: Coaches and players are available to the media coming off the field after practices. Additional interview requests for Redskin coaches, players or staff must come through the Redskins Public Relations Staff.

Access: During the regular season, players are available to accredited media during specific interview periods throughout the week. On Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays the locker room will be open for 45 minutes after the morning practice, around lunch hour. In addition, players and coaches will be made available coming off the playing field after practices. Check with Redskins PR for practice and open locker room times. Players are off limits on Saturdays and before games on Sundays.
